GRAFT CHARGES BEING PRESENTED TO THE JURY

WITNESSES IN THE JURY ROOM

Startling Stories Are to Be Told to the Censors in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov 14—The grand jury has begun the investigation of the French restaurants, and some startling disclosures are promised.

Abe Ruef is said to have received $28,000 while acting as attorney for these restaurants, and it is claimed that there will be some sensational facts brought to light in connection with the boss, besides the other features of the alleged scandal

THE EVIDENCE.

The presentation of evidence on which the expected indictments are to be based has been delayed so far by the difficulty the grand jury experienced in finding a suitable room in which to hold their meetings. They have now found quarters in the Relief Corporation's building at the corner of Gough and Geary streets and they met there this morning at 10 o'clock

Francis J Heney, special prosecutor of the municipal grafters, and William J. Burns, special agent of the government, announced that they were fully prepared to go ahead They did more than this—they served subpenas on a number of witnesses in the first case that will be presented to the grand jury for consideration

The malodorous French restaurant scandal—involving Ruef will be the first bit of rottenness to watch the grand jurors will give their attention The witnesses subpenaed are to testify in this matter.

MUCH MYSTERY.

Owing to the fact that Abe Ruef is endeavoring in every way to "get a line" on the work that Heney and Burns are doing, and for that reason has handy men watching the building at Franklin, near O'Farrell where Heney has his office, great mystery surrounded the service of these subpenas. They were entrusted to Dr Percy Dolman, a personal friend of District Attorney Langdon, who left Heney's office by the rear exit under cover of darkness and sped away with the subpenas before pursuit was possible.

When the witnesses who were served with notices that their testimony will be needed appear before the Grand Jury the whole story of the French restaurant hold-up will be unfolded.

THE CRUSADE.

It was about two years ago that Police Commissioner Harry W. Hutton and Thomas Reagan began their crusade against these institutions, which had waxed wealthy through years of immunity in their nefarious traffic They attacked them in two ways—by objecting to the maintenance of sleeping apartments in them and by fighting to revoke their liquor licenses

Reagan in his famous letter has since told how he was closeted for hours with the Mayor, and how the latter used every conceivable argument to induce him to stop this crusade But Reagan was firm and so was Harry Hutton. In desperation a scandalous story about Hutton's alleged relations with a young woman was given publicity, and the Mayor used it for removing him from the Police Commission

With Hutton removed Ruef and others found it easy to protect the French restaurants against the wrath of Commissioner Reagan Ruef appeared as their attorney before the board and succeeded in saving them from the threatened upheaval. For this service he received $38,000 It is understood that the larger restaurants paid him $2500 apiece and the smaller ones $1100

DECLARES SHE IS INNOCENT

Mrs. Captain Bent Says That Child Took Lace From the Dressmaker.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 14.—Mrs. McCutcheon, an Oakland dressmaker, who resides on Eighth street, applied at the local police station yesterday afternoon for a warrant to search the residence of Mrs. E. G. Cohen, where Mrs Charles Lyman Bent, the wife of a captain in the army and well known socially about the bay, has been staying with her mother, Mrs Cohen, for the past few months.

LACE DISAPPEARS.

Mrs. McCutcheon asserted to Justice R. B. Tappan, to whom she applied for the warrant, that after Mrs. Bent had visited her place of business, about two weeks ago, a valuable piece of lace disappeared. Justice Tappan advised that Mrs. McCutcheon see Mrs Bent before taking the final step of having the house searched, and the dressmaker went to Fernside, where Mrs Bent has been staying, and reached an amicable settlement with the woman whom she claims took the lace.

MRS. BENT S STORY.

Mrs Bent was seen at Fernside this morning and was very much agitated when told the story vouched for by Mrs. McCutcheon. Mrs. Bent was preparing to leave for the East this morning, and at noon left to join her husband at Omaha.

"To think that such a thing would happen when I am all ready to go East. I would stay here and have some accounting for this story if I could. The statement that the lace was stolen is not true, and much has been said to injure me. I was at Mrs. McCutcheon's about two weeks ago with my eight-year-old daughter.

CHILD'S ACTION.

"Mrs. McCutcheon had a number of lace samples in the room, and when we were ready to leave the little girl asked if she could have them Mrs McCutcheon said yes, and in gathering them up the child took a piece of lace that was on the table.

"I knew nothing of it until yesterday, when Mrs McCutcheon came to my home and told me that after I left the house, the lace was missed, and that she believed I knew where it was I knew nothing of it, and asked my little girl about it. I then went to the child's room and found the lace pinned on a doll's dress. I returned the lace to the woman, and do not know why such a malicious statement was given out.

MANY REGRETS.

"There is nothing to the story, and the child is too young to know that she has done something wrong. I keenly regret the notoriety attached to this and it really makes me feel ill. I go east at noon to meet my husband I wish that you would state good and strong what I have told you, and see that justice is done me"

JUDGE'S STORY.

Justice R. B Tappan, to whom Mrs. McCutcheon applied for the warrant, stated this morning that it was not his practice to give a warrant whenever one was applied for. Yesterday at noon, Mrs McCutcheon went to his office, and he advised that she settle the matter without going into the courts, if possible The woman then went to Mrs. Bent's home, and, it is said, a stormy scene ensued. Justice Tappan this morning said:

"I know nothing of the trouble other than that a warrant was applied for, but the matter was settled without the aid of the police or myself."

GRAND JUROR QUITS ROOM

REFUSES TO TELL WHY HE WOULD NOT ACT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov 14—The recently organized grand jury assembled in secret session today at Native Sons' Hall, to hear the testimony presented by District Attorney W H Langdon and Francis J Heney. The greatest reticence is maintained by all concerned in the deliberations, and it is possible that the session may extend

The first charge looked into was an alleged conspiracy to extort money from the keepers of French restaurants in this city Several proprietors of these places had been summoned as witnesses and they waited in an ante-room to be called before the grand jury. Former Police Commissioners Reagan, Hutton and Howell, who had also been subpoenaed, also waited to be called into the jury room.

A dramatic incident occurred shortly before the jurymen began their deliberations. H H Young, one of the members of the grand jury, left the room and refused to participate in the Many Sensational Charges Made in the Complaint Filed by the Countess.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—The tribunal of first instance of the Seine, Judge Ditte presiding, at noon today granted a divorce to the Countess de Castellane (formerly Anna Gould, of New York), and gave her the custody of her children, who, however, will not be allowed to be taken from France without the consent of their father, Count Boni de Castellane.

END OF FAMOUS CASE.

The end of the famous case came suddenly. The court brushed aside the demand of the Count's lawyers for an examination of witnesses and, as anticipated, the public prosecutor did not even ask to be heard.

SWEEPING VICTORY.

As soon as Court assembled, Judge Ditte handed down the judgment, which is a sweeping victory for the Countess. In granting her petition for divorce, the court gave the Countess the custody of her children, the Count being allowed only the usual rights to see them and share in the control of their education, which was not contested.

The Count was given the right to see the children at stated periods at the home of their grandmother and keep them a month annually during the holidays.

NO ALIMONY FOR COUNT.

TOO MUCH MONEY FOR OFFICER

Getting Rapidly Rich on a Very Small Salary.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.—Chief of Police Dinan today removed Sergeant of Police James. Donovan, who has had charge of the liquor licenses issued by the police commission.

Donovan has not received a tremendously large salary during his term of office, but has managed to build some very costly flats and to indulge in other luxuries which have caused considerable talk.

HE WANTED TO BE A FATHER

Hodgkins Tells of His Wife's Actions in Divorce Suit.

Police Officer Wilfred Hodgkins was the principal witness when his divorce suit was continued in the Superior court this morning before Judge John Ellsworth. Deputy District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes, subjected the witness to a searching cross-examination.

Hodgkins said that April 22, 1906, she told him that she was not made to work and refused to cook his meals; that she would not let him sleep; that she would bring their baby into the room while it was crying, and disturb his slumbers. Hodgkins said for that reason he and his wife lived in different rooms for several months. He denied that he did not want her to wash the baby while he was sleeping, but added that she would shake the mattress and otherwise disturb his dreams.

GREEN SKIRT SCENE.

Witness told of the scene between his wife and himself where a green skirt figured. He said he tried to teach her a lesson by refusing to let her have her clothes so she could leave the house. She grew indignant and told him that she was "going out anyway and would stay with other men"

"I told what she said to me to Mrs. William Quigley, Jr.," said Hodgkins, "saying, isn't it a shame that a young mother should say such a thing to her husband."

"'Harriett, I have tried to teach you a lesson,' I told her when I grabbed a feather from a hat in her hand. It was not on her head. I thought it strange that she could go out day and night and not cook my meals.

"She refused to view the dead body of my niece, but told me on the same day that she had seen the dead body of 'Ruth's father'."

SHE DOES NOT CRY.

"I never saw her cry at home. She is not the kind of a girl to cry. She

CASTRO DEAD, REPORT SAYS

Official Word Withheld in Order to Maintain Present Government.

FORT DE FRANCE Nov 14—The Dutch cruiser Kortenaer arrived here from Willemstad Island of Curacao and reported today that at the time of her departure from Curacao it was reported there persistently and it is generally believed that President Castro of Venezuela was dead but that his death was being concealed by the Venezuelan government in order to maintain itself in power. The Kortenaer has received orders to hasten her preparations to put to sea again and to leave Fort de France for La Guayra Venezuela if the death of President Castro is confirmed. The French cruisers Jurien de la Graviere and de Guay Trouin are off this part.

FINED $10 FOR FIRING REVOLVER

ALAMEDA Nov 14—A C Brian was this morning fined $10 for discharging a revolver within the city limits. Bryan resides at 2152 Pacific avenue. He declares that in dropping the revolver it was discharged accidentally. Justice Tappan placed little credence in his story the revolver being a hammerless and fined the man.

FIGHT BEGUN BY DEFENSE

J A Marshall Takes Stand in Behalf of Lester McNulty

J A Marshall the first witness for the defense in the trial of Lester C McNulty was the main figure in Judge Harris court this morning when the case was resumed.

The McNulty family was present as usual but the prosecutrix Dorothy Olsen was conspicuous by her absence. There was a scattering of spectators on the benches.

District Attorney-elect Everett Brown finished the case for the prosecution yesterday when Deputy District Attorney W H L Hynes swore that McNulty denied all knowledge of the alleged offense and Court Stenographer R... was sworn to testify that he had made a correct transcript of McNulty's testimony at the preliminary trial. To save time Brown will read the transcript of the former deputy county clerk's direct examination.

Judge A L Frick drew from Marshall a reiteration of the evidence he gave at the former trials. Then Marshall was turned over to Brown who finished the cross examination at noon.

Frick ... consulted with his client.

SHOCKED THE COURT

An amusing incident of the morning session was the entrance of a messenger boy looking for Attorney Brown. Utterly disregarding the dignity of the court the boy walked up to the witness stand and handed Marshall a telegram in the midst of his cross examination. The act was so bold that Judge Harris was somewhat stunned but he finally ordered the youth to step back. Brown eventually got the telegram.

Brown stated today that the case will go to the jury next week.

LAWYERS FIGHT HARD

Brown is making the fight of his life in the ... as he realizes the eyes of all the county are on him and he is leaving no stone unturned to convict the defendant. Judge Frick is equally on the alert taking advantage of every move ... to enter an objection.

Marshall said that his wife recently became a mother and would be unable to appear.

The principal point brought forth in Marshall's testimony was that he knew money was being paid and knew what it was for even going so far as to sign the paper as a witness.

WANT HARBOR TO BE THIRTY FEET DEEP

Chamber of Commerce to Talk Matter Over With Senator Perkins and Congressman Knowland.

At a meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce held yesterday afternoon the secretary was instructed to arrange for a conference with Senator Perkins and Congressman Knowland, representing this district and with the representatives of other sections of the State together with all property owners and manufacturers on the Oakland harbor water-front.

The very large number of manufacturers locating on Oakland harbor and the great amount of material necessary to ship therefrom makes it imperative that the channel be deepened to at least thirty feet.

The harbor and water front committee of the Chamber of Commerce have been working assiduously on the matter for some time past and will undoubtedly send a committee to Washington to appear before the Rivers and Harbors committee in favor of the project. The property owners along Oakland harbor have in most instances dredged from their property line to the channel to an equal depth with the channel and a majority have agreed to dredge to any depth of channel that may be granted.

The conference will be held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday, November 21st, at three o'clock. The directors referred the proposition of sending a delegate from the Chamber of Commerce to the Counties Committee of the California Promotion Committee in San Diego next month as also a delegate to the National Rivers and Harbors Congress in Washington in January to the Harbor Committee with power to act.

The secretary was instructed to ascertain if possible the name of any member of the chamber who would be in or near Kansas City on November 20th to 23d that he might be appointed the representative of the Chamber of Commerce at the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress.

COMPANION OF JOHN BROWN

Horatio Rust Shared Many Councils With Famous Abolitionist

LOS ANGELES Nov 14—Major Horatio Nelson Rust noted archaeologist and Indian authority philanthropist friend and companion of John Brown and veteran of the Civil War died at his home in South Pasadena today at the age of 78. Major Rust was a son of Nelson Rust the Abolitionist whose homestead in Connecticut was one of the stations on the famed Underground railroad in slavery days. It was here that Major Rust then a young man met Brown and shared in many of the councils and coups of the famous abolitionist. Upon the breaking out of the Civil War Major Rust enlisted in the medical corps of the Federal army serving under General Burnside. He saw service in many campaigns. At the close of the war he spent several years in business in Chicago coming to Southern California twenty-one years ago. He has been identified with public enterprises and won a name for public spirit and philanthropy. He was born in Amherst Mass May 11, 1828.

DELMAS CALLS THAW A WRECK

Attorney Says White Slayer Is In a Highly Nervous Condition.

NEW YORK Nov 14—In my opinion Harry Thaw is a nervous wreck. Judging from my single interview with him which took place yesterday afternoon the young man is laboring under great excitement and is evidently of a highly nervous temperament.

The foregoing statement was made yesterday by Delphin Michael Delmas a California lawyer who has come all the way from San Francisco to defend the slayer of Stanford White. The statement seems to be an indication that a plea of insanity will play an important part in the defense. Delmas said that so far as he knew the only lawyers who would be actively concerned in the defense would be Clifford W Hartridge, John B Gleason, Russell Peabody and himself.

It is true said Mr Delmas that some time ago Joseph H Choate was approached in behalf of Thaw by his Pittsburg attorney David T Watson. Choate declined a retainer. John L Parsons was also approached but he declined to take the case on the ground that he was too old for such active service.

It is reported in circles in which Harry Kendall Thaw moved before he killed White that outside of Florence Evelyn Nesbit Thaw not more than half a dozen witnesses would be called for the defense. They will testify that Thaw was driven to the verge of insanity by revelations concerning the relations existing between White and Evelyn Thaw.

District Attorney Jerome said tonight that the trial of Harry Thaw would be moved for the first week in December. He stated that the court which would try the case has not been decided upon but it would probably be heard before Recorder Goff in the Court of General Sessions. Jerome said that he would conduct the prosecution and would be assisted by Assistant District Attorney Garvin.

COTTON KING BUYS TALLOW

Dan Sully is the Head of a Million Dollar Soap Corporation

NEW YORK Nov 14—Daniel J Sully once known as the cotton king has abandoned the field in which he made his spectacular coups and has gone into soap and tallow. He has become the head of a soap corporation which has $1 200 000 capital. The plant is in Brooklyn.

Sully it was stated yesterday was behind the recent movement in the tallow market, which has forced that commodity up 25 per cent within the last few weeks.

Sully said last night he was not trying to corner the tallow market.

"I went into the soap business some little time ago," he continued and since September 1 we have been accumulating a year's supply ahead that's all. We have got it and now I expect to see the price of tallow slump off some. We have no idea of forming or entering an American soap trust. Trusts are not popular just now."

INCREASED SERVICE ON SHASTA ROUTE

BY SOUTHERN PACIFIC.

The passenger department of the Southern Pacific announces new train service between San Francisco and Portland effective on the 21st inst. This will give service of three trains daily each way between San Francisco and Portland.

The new train is to leave San Francisco at 3 10 p m. It will have first class and tourist sleepers and dining car including a tourist sleeper from Sacramento as well as San Francisco. It will arrive at Portland the next evening at 10 50 p m. Its route will be via the west side of the Sacramento Valley through Davis and Woodland and the scenery of the Mt Shasta region and the Siskiyous will be passed by daylight. It is anticipated that a great deal of the travel heretofore using the 8 o'clock evening train from San Francisco will patronize the new train.

In the opposite direction it is planned to have the new train leave Portland at 11 p m and arrive at San Francisco via the west side of the Sacramento Valley at 9 48 a m.

The Sacramento Valley and the towns of Corning, Colusa, Williams, Woodland etc will be greatly benefited by the new service. It will give them a morning train to San Francisco and Sacramento and an evening train from those cities home—a service not heretofore enjoyed.

On the same day the Southern Pacific doubles its evening train service East via the Ogden route. In addition to overland train No 6 running via Stockton with standard and tourist sleepers and dining car service a train of first class sleepers only and diner will leave San Francisco at 9 p m for Chicago via Ogden and Omaha on a materially shorter schedule than the present one. For the benefit of Stockton and San Joaquin Valley passengers a through standard sleeper will be carried on train No 6 to Sacramento then side-tracked and attached to the later and faster train when it arrives.

The increased service on the Sunset route when a new train is added between San Francisco and New Orleans and the Golden State Limited service is resumed between California and Chicago via El Paso and the Rock Island route will be in effect on December 16th.

The prosperity of California is strikingly reflected by this increased service of the Southern Pacific each of its three routes being given new interstate trains within a period of sixty days.

SUES WOMAN ON CONTRACT

Albert S Day Says Payments Were Refused by a County Clerk.

Albert S Day brought suit against Margaret Ball in the County Clerk's office this morning asking judgment for $2 103 12 for breach of contract. The complaint states that on September 15 the plaintiff procured D B Huntley to purchase the southwest corner of Sixteenth and Clay streets Oakland, having a frontage of 103 feet and 9 inches on Clay street and a frontage of 100 feet on Sixteenth street with an uniform depth of 100 owned by the defendant. On that date Huntley paid her a deposit of $1-000 on a contract whereby he agreed to buy the property for $62 840 as follows $22 840 in cash upon execution of the deed and the balance by promissory note. Day claims that the defendant agreed to pay him $2240 as commission when the deal was consummated and also taxes for the first year amounting to $236 88. When Huntley offered the first payment it was refused and since then has been refused. Wherefore plaintiff asks judgment for his commission and other relief that the court may see fit.

It's strange what a difference an old earthquake will make—why you hardly ever see an idle man nowadays—everybody is scratching and throwing dirt and just simply on the run even I work—me who should be in school here I am digging away and helping run a clothing store. My boss said yesterday that he didn't know what to do about getting goods and if some smart feller would get up a scheme to send clothing by wire he would be glad. He can order it that way but getting it back is different. Why the Berkeley store is opened and the new clothes to fill it with are on a train away back somewhere in Missouri and I went up yesterday and asked the Santa Fe and S P man where the goods were and one of them said that the train which was bringing them west had run over a cow and it had delayed the goods. The other feller said that they had run out of excuses and to call again. So I guess the folks in Berkeley will have to come to Oakland and buy some paint. Good evening says I, speaking for nnually was pronounced by the court to be without foundation n law and was rejected.

The only point decided in the Count's favor was the imposiion of the inhibition on the Countess not to take the children out f France without their father's consent.

The court appointed the president of the Chamber of Deputies o liquidate the affairs of the husband and wife.

THE JUDGMENT.

The judgment was given with costs against the Count. The decree, the reading of which hardly consumed five minutes, was delivered by the judge in a voice so low as to be practically inaudible to the eager crowd filling the courtroom. Many women climbed the chairs in vain efforts to hear the decision and when they were aware that a divorce was granted they seemed actually to resent the loss of a public trial at which people in high society would be compelled to testify.

Anna Gould, the youngest daughter of the late Jay Gould, was married to Count Ernest Boniface de Castellane, the eldest son of the Marquis de Castellane, at the New York home of her brother, George J. Gould, March 4, 1895, the late Archbishop Corrigan officiating.

HER GREAT DOWRY.

Miss Gould's dowry was understood to have been $16,000,000 and it was further stated that her income was $600,000 a year. Immediately after the marriage the couple left the United States for France, where the extravagant manner in which they lived attracted considerable attention. About five years after the marriage the Count and Countess de Castellane were reported to be financially embarrassed, it being alleged that the Count had already spent about $7,000,000 of his wife's money.

An adjustment of the affairs of the Count and Countess became necessary and considerable litigation followed, with the result that the Gould family intervened and the income of the Countess was cut down to $200,000.

PLEA FOR DIVORCE.

On February 5 of the present year the Countess de Castellane entered a plea for divorce, the hearing of which began before Judge Ditte, Maitre Cruppi appearing for the Countess and Maitre Bonnet for the Count. Evidence in the shape of correspondence between the Count and women was presented and the case was adjourned to November 7, when the final pleas were made and the suit adjourned until November 14. On the following day, November 8, the case of the Count's creditors was presented to the court and adjourned for two weeks.

The three children of the Castellanes are George, Boni and Jay, the youngest being the namesake of his mother's father, the late Jay Gould.

THE CHARGES MADE.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—Stripped of textual verbiage, the formal counts upon which the attorneys of Countess de Castellane asked for a divorce were as follows:

1. Soon after his marriage Count de Castellane began the purchase of furniture at ridiculously exorbitant prices and immediately resold it. When the plaintiff protested the Count abused her in the presence of servants.

2. Upon the slightest pretexts Count de Castellane created scenes, going to the extent of striking plaintiff. In the course of one of these scenes at Rochecotte, during the autumn of 1895, the Countess was brutally pinched by her husband, and the next day, while she was still suffering from his violence she revealed the fact to an American friend who was a guest at the chateau.

HIS LADY FRIENDS.

3. During the summer of 1898 and notably during a pleasure trip which the Count de Castellane took the Count was intimate with a married woman—"Mme. A."

4. The Count maintained a correspondence with "Mme. A.," fixing the dates for rendezvous, through the intermediary of Mme. X. and "Mn" in the Rue de Maubege.

5. During the summer of 1895 Count de Castellane had intimate relations with "Mme. B." He had many meetings with her principally at the Pavilion of St. James.

STRING OF WOMEN.

6. During June, 1905, a lady entered the Count de Castellane's automobile, dined with him at Villa d'Avray and both later went to the Pavilion of St. James, where they spent two hours.

7. During the same year Count de Castellane was intimate with a woman living in a furnished rooming house in the Rue Castigilione.

8. In 1905 the Count de Castellane was intimate with Mme. C., which involved indiscretions, repeated rendezvous and automobile excursions, objects forgotten in an automobile and found by the domestics, making almost public scandals. Count de Castellane went frequently with this woman to an apartment which he maintained at Nueilly.

FOOLED HIS WIFE.

9. In June, 1905, at the end of a big reception at the mansion on the Avenue Malakoff, Count de Castellane and "Mme. C." were found an hour after alone in the garden and the Count was compelled to summon aid for the opening of the gate. The servants who responded recognized "Mme. C." who left the mansion hurriedly.

9a. In the absence of her husband and notably in the course of a journey of "M. C.," "Mme. C." received Count de Castellane every day at her residence and upon his arrival gave orders to the servants to turn away further visitors. The Countess Castellane going one day to the residence of "Mme. C." was told by the servants that "Mme. C." was not at home, although at that time the Count was on the premises.

9b. While "M. C." was at Paris two maids of "Mme. C.," who were mounting guard to permit Count de Castellane to emerge by the back stairway in case of the arrival of the husband, did in reality see him so descend.

9c. The servants of "Mme. C." were not ignorant that their mistress met Count de Castellane, and one of them frequently, sometimes three times a day, carried her letters to the count. There were frequent scenes between "M. C." and "Mme. C." on the subject of Count de Castellane.

DINED AND WINED.

10. While the Countess de Castellane was absent in America, Count de Castellane was intimate with "Mme. D." He dined with her in a private room at the Cafe Anglais and ordered orchids for the decoration of the table.

11. On May 11, 1904, while the Countess de Castellane was absent, Count de Castellane took "Mme. D." to the Chateau des Marais, where he passed the afternoon with her.

RENTED SECRET PLACES.

12. For several years Count de Castellane rented in Paris a number of places for his rendezvous, in particular No. 26 Rue la Rochefoucould, where he was known under the name of "Pascal," No. 16 Rue de General Foy, the Pavilion of St. James and No. 5 Rue Oave at Neuilly. At these addresses he received, to the knowledge of several of his servants and chauffeurs, the women with whom he was intimate, belonging to the monde and the demi-monde classes. Here follows a long list of dates, extending from the years 1901 to 1906. The text of the decree does not go into the details of the Countess' bill of particulars, "inasmuch as Mme. Castellane submitted letters and documents, several of which were from the Count himself, establishing sufficiently that since their marriage, notably in 1898, 1902 and 1905, he had relations and correspondence with various women of easy virtue which was most offensive to a wife, thus rendering him self-guilty of acts justifying a divorce, and as he had failed to establish a reconciliation the petition of Mme. de Castellane is granted."

The Count's demand for an "alimentary allowance of $50,000 annually" was denied on the ground that the guilty party in divorce loses all the advantages accorded either by a marriage contract or the course of married life, and consequently the court refused to allow not only the Count's original claim for $50,000 per annum, but the $30,000 which the Countess offered and which it now seems the Count claimed to have accepted October 25.

THE CHILDREN.

The court also took a precaution against any unreasonable attitude of the Count toward allowing his wife to take her children out of France by providing that in case of his refusal judicial authorization could be granted.

The decree orders the Countess to send the children on Thursdays and Sundays to their grandmother, the Marquise de Castellane and their surrender to their father for a week at New Year's and Easter and for a month in the summer.

GOULD PLEASED.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Howard Gould, brother of the Countess de Castellane, who is in this city, when informed by the Associated Press that his sister had been granted a divorce from the count, said that while he was grateful for the information, he had no comment to make upon it.

The decree of the court with respect to the children not leaving France without the consent of the father, he said, was rather to be expected, as it was in accordance with the French custom.

HODGKINS' CASE

attracted the attention of all people by her desire to see the cremation of the body of my niece. She only accompanied me to that funeral after I had ordered a hack and it had driven up to the house.

"In August, 1905, she came home after midnight, saying she had been to see her aunt in San Francisco. That was not the only time she was out after midnight.' There were at least half a dozen times.

"She told me she was going to Dr. Porter to have an operation performed and a month later, August 5, told me he had refused to perform an operation. I did not think it was necessary for me to see Dr. Porter.

"I made notes of important things. I have kept a diary of all police matters for years. I did not put down all of my wife's acts, but I have kept a daily record of matters other than those connected with my line of duty. I did keep track of my wife's conduct. Of important things I always made notes. It is not a fact that I anticipated trouble with my wife and was keeping records to 'make a case!'

HE WANTED CHILD.

"I never wanted to get rid of the child. I always wanted to be a father. As a rule she always picked trouble. She told me that if she became a mother she would lower me to lower herself. I quarreled with her about being out at night, also about her refusal to cook meals. I did not always say please do this or please do that, but I never ordered her peremptorily to do such things.

"I would go away in the morning and we would be friends. I would come home at night and she would not be home to cook my meals. She walked heavily about the house to annoy me while I was sleeping. She threw water upon me at the sink with her hands.

"The house I live in belongs to my mother. My married brothers do not support her. They gave me an education. When I grew up I took the responsibility of supporting the household, my mother and sister.

"I do not entertain any bitter feeling toward my wife. I never told Dr. Pomeroy while I was at the Providence Hospital that if my wife called that she should not be permitted to see me."

"Bailiff," said Hynes, "call Dr. Pomeroy at the Providence Hospital and tell him to be here at 2 o'clock."

Hynes asked witness if he ever said to his wife that he could get a girl named Alice Flynn any time he wanted her, as she adored him. Attorney Chapman entered objection and it was sustained.

CHARGE OF FLIRTING.

Hodgkins denied he was ever called before the Chief of Police to answer to a charge of flirting or insulting a girl on Fourteenth street near Campbell. The denial was followed by an objection from his counsel, but it was too late. The question and answer were ordered stricken out.

Hynes then rested and Hodgkins was taken up on redirect examination. The officer reiterated that he held no conversation with Dr. Pomeroy regarding the expulsion of his wife. That he did not believe Dr. Porter would perform an operation. Hodgkins was then allowed to leave the stand and his brother, Detective St. Claire Hodgkins, formerly Chief of Police, was called to the witness chair.

BROTHER ON STAND.

Witness stated that he had a conversation with Mrs. Hodgkins regarding the unborn child. The talk occurred about July or August, 1905, in the parlor at 658 Twenty-sixth street. "The plaintiff, the defendant and myself were present. At that time I told her that my wife and Wilfred had told me of her condition and she being desirous of getting rid of the child. I stated to her the danger of such an operation. I told her what a good thing it was to have a baby come into this world and the benefit to be derived on the arrival of the baby. She did not deny that she did not want to be a mother." Chapman then turned the ex-chief over to Hynes.

The witness was still on the stand when a recess was taken at noon.

Hynes asked that all of St. Clair Hodgkins' testimony be stricken out, but Judge Ellsworth interposed several questions regarding the presence of parties at the conversation. Hynes then moved that the testimony was immaterial, irrelevant and incompetent.

Judge Ellsworth rebuked Attorney Chapman for addressing the court with an averted face, and Chapman moved round so he loaked the judge full in the face.

Hynes said the ex-chief's conversation was not shown to have been communicated to defendant.

The court said the only point was which was guilty of the attempted operation, the husband or the wife. He overruled the motion made by plaintiff's attorney.

Mrs. Olga Quigley, sister of the plaintiff, was called just before the court ordered a noon recess. She denied the conversation which the defendant said had been made in her presence and that of his wife wherein he said "What do you think of a woman who will want to go with other men than her husband?"

It was learned this afternoon that the woman whom Hodgkins was accused of flirting with by Hynes in his cross-examination is Mrs. John Mott, wife of the clerk of department 2 of the police court, and Hynes stated that Chief Wilson admitted he had the officer on the carpet and had asked the husband if he wished to push the case, but that Mott dropped it.

deliberations. He refused to give a reason for his action.

Toni Blanco, a restaurant keeper, was the first witness summoned by the inquisitors. He was closeted for thirty minutes, but when he reappeared he refused to make any statement and hurried away.

L. M. Adler, another restaurant-eur, was also examined for a considerable length of time.

POLICE BOARD IN SESSION

The Police and Fire Commissioners met this morning and transacted routine business. Applications for positions as policemen were received from the following: George N. Green, Michael Wallace, Frank Dallo, Michael Banning, Henry Degelman, Charles A. Neeley and A. B. Stebbins.

Joseph Cordano was chosen a special policeman to act at the First National Bank.

The West Oakland Athletic Club was granted permission to hold amateur boxing contests on the night of November 20th.

John Dufrain was reappointed a machinist in the fire and police telegraph shop at a salary of $125.

WOMAN FALLS; BREAKS NECK

While walking up the front stairs of her home last night, Mrs. Mattie Campana slipped and fell over the side of the steps to the ground, a distance of ten feet, sustaining a broken neck, from which she died almost instantly. The Campanas reside at 1411 Eighteenth street, and the deceased is survived by her husband and two children.

Mrs. Campana was away from home last evening, and it was while she was returning that she met her tragic death. Campana became anxious about his wife, and at about 10 o'clock he went out on his front porch. He saw the form of a woman lying in the garden below him and he went down to investigate. He discovered that it was his wife, and upon investigation found that her neck was broken and life was about extinct.

It was very dark last night, and it is thought that Mrs. Campana, groping her way up the stairs, walked too near the edge, and, becoming overbalanced, fell to the ground. When her body was found a doctor was called, but it was seen that the unfortunate woman had passed away.

Deceased was 46 years of age. An inquest will be held to determine the cause of her death.

CONTRACTOR IS THE LOSER

Summary action was taken this morning by the board of public works in regard to the construction of a culvert on Linda avenue across Cemetery Creek. All previous proceedure in the matter was rescinded and as a result Contractor Charles Roeth is a loser by several hundreds of dollars.

Some time ago the city council passed a resolution ordering the culvert constructed. No bids were received for the work, but Roeth took the matter into his own hands and built the culvert, expecting to be paid by the city. He also made arrangements with the Oakland Traction Consolidated to pay him $250 as its portion of the cost.

The superintendent of streets was authorized by the board of public works to proceed with the work. A flaw was found in the proceedure, however, and all action was rescinded this morning. The city council will now appropriate $1000 for the work and the culvert will be rebuilt according to the plan of the city engineer.

It was found that Roeth did not build the culvert in accordance with the city engineer's plan and his work was not accepted. Payment was refused by the city as well as the Oakland Traction Consolidated.

PERMITS FOR MANY LIGHTS

More applications from merchants for permission to erect electroliers in front of their places of business were received by the Board of Public Works this morning. I. A. Beretta 463 Thirteenth street; E. Lehnhardt, 1159 Broadway, and A. J. Snyder, 901 Broadway, were the applicants, and their petitions were granted. The members of the Board were unanimous in the belief that the electroliers would do much to beautify the streets of the city. Many of these electroliers are now in operation and have been found to be a success.

Permission was granted to the following to erect electric signs: Fuller & Nott, 915 Broadway; Osgood Bros., Seventh and Broadway; Brigg's millinery store, Bacon Block; M. J. Keller & Company, 1157 Washington street; California Optical Company, 1113 Broadway.

The opening of Forty-first street, from West street to 340 feet east of Market street, was recommended to the City Council. Property owners on Forty-first street asked that the street be opened.

The secretary was authorized to advertise for bids for the re-piling of the Eighth-street bridge.

Chief of Police Wilson has directed the purchase of a saddle horse for the police department at a cost of $200.

Superintendent of Streets Ott was authorized to purchase a new set of sewer rods at a cost of $250.

The purchase of five iron horse fountains at a cost of $300 was left to Mayor Mott. These fountains were asked for by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and the money was appropriated by the City Council.

The City Electrician was directed to purchase five new alarm boxes and a clock and register tape for Engine House No. 1, at a cost of $450.

The contract for the new warehouse on the Webster-street wharf was awarded to F. H. Dalmke of 477 Twenty-sixth street, whose bid was $1685. The building is to be a frame structure and must be ready for use in fifty-five days.

The resolution from the City Council requesting the board to construct bituminous crosswalks and concrete culverts at the intersection of streets crossing Fifth street, from Clay to Peralta streets, was referred to the committee of the whole, as was the resolution requesting the construction of crosswalks and concrete culverts at the crossing of Fifty-third, Fifty-fifth and Fifty-seventh streets and San Pablo avenue and Telegraph avenue and Alcatraz avenue.

The resolution authorizing the Board to construct a concrete culvert on Twenty-ninth street, across Cemetery creek, was re-referred to the City Council, for the passing of ordinance appropriating money in accordance with the estimate of the City Attorney.

The secretary was authorized to advertise for bids for the construction of concrete culvert at Fifty-ninth street and College avenue.

The Superintendent of Streets was directed to construct cement curbs and gutterways on south side of East Fourteenth street, in front of Clinton Park.

The resolution directing the Superintendent of streets to construct a culvert on Linda Vista avenue over Cemetery creek was rescinded, as was the resolution awarding contract to D. Brown to do the work.

The application of Mrs. C. Morgan for permission to cut down trees in front of 1542 Brush street, was granted.

Paul Cullen and John Gillicke applied for positions as park gardeners and their applications were filed.

The petition of residents in the vicinity for an electric light at the corner of Fifty-third and Market streets, was granted.

Next Saturday morning the board will take up the question of renovating the sewer system of this city with the funds which were voted at a recent bond election.

FORCED HER TO PAY DUTY ON RINGS SHE IS WEARING

Customs Officers Hold Up Granddaughter of a Vanderbilt for Gems She Failed to Declare.

NEW YORK, Nov 14 — Mrs. "Jack" Wilmerding, who after a series of troubles, matrimonial and otherwise, disappeared from public notice about a year ago, arrived from Europe the other day All of her outer apparel, which included a velvet dress, a chic Paris hat, a black fur coat and a set of beautiful furs, was subjected to the closest scrutiny, while even the earrings in her ears, the rings on her hands and other jewelry were handled by customs officials because she did not declare it to a collector while coming up the bay.

Daughter of the late Vanderbilt Allen and a great-granddaughter of the late Commodore Vanderbilt, Mrs Wilmerding was separated from her husband about seven years ago Two years later she went on the stage, appearing under the name "Mrs Wilmerding," with Grace George, in "Under Southern Skies."

Asked whether she had made any purchases abroad, Mrs Wilmerding told a government official that everything she had with her she had worn and that she understood that nothing was dutiable.

Her costume attracted attention and the inspector who started to delve into her trunks soon called an appraiser. Then he called a second appraiser. By this time Mrs. Wilmerding had become the center of interest on the dock. A third appraiser was summoned, and as a result Mrs Wilmerding's importations were appraised at $1500 and a duty of $750 levied thereon.

Mrs Wilmerding was indignant She told her troubles to Dr J D Ambler, who met her and who said he was her business manager She told the customs officials she had not with her the money necessary for the duty, and she and Dr Ambler hastened from the pier in a cab to obtain it, and the baggage was kept on the dock until their return.

Dr Ambler is authority for the statement that about a year ago Mrs Wilmerding received a legacy from an aunt, Miss Mary Carroll, of New York, amounting to about $40,000.

Latest Photo of Mrs. "Jack" Wilderming, Known as the Society Leader in New York and Boston, Was Held Up at the New York Pier For Duty on Her Personal Apparel.

JURY IS AMAZED AT THE CONTENTS OF HER TRUNK

Verdict of $1666.25 Returned for Lost Furs, Lingerie and One Coffee Pot.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 14.—Twelve "good men and true," as the old English law books say, were full of trouble yesterday in the city court in East St. Louis when, as a jury, they were called upon to estimate the value of a lot of things they did not know the names of.

Mrs. Louise Sheflin, of 210 Collinsville avenue, was suing for $2000 damages for the loss of a trunk while traveling between Springfield, Mo., and Little Rock, Ark., on January 19 last. The jury was lost in admiration when it contemplated the list of things that were in the trunk. A verdict for $1666 25 was returned in favor of the plaintiff.

Mrs. Sheflin testified that a full-length mink coat, lost with the trunk, was worth $1000, and another coat, broadcloth, lined with squirrel fur, and a black silk dress trimmed with jet, added largely to her estimate of loss. There was also an overcoat in the trunk made for a "mere man," but this was of comparatively little value. Besides these articles, a long list of lingerie was enumerated, and under the miscellaneous heading came "one carving set with genuine horn handles, one dozen knives, one dozen forks, one coffee pot, etc." Mrs. Sheflin, handsomely gowned, explained to the jury the value of the various articles, and the court room took on the aspect of a dressmakers' convention while she talked to the jury about things it didn't know anything about.

SUICIDE PACT FOLLOWS 2 WEEKS AFTER WEDDING

Fear of Consumption From Which Young Husband Suffered Results in Double Tragedy.

SMITHVILLE, Mo., Nov. 14.—Fearing that consumption, from which the husband was a sufferer, would soon separate them, Mr and Mrs. Jesse B Webb, a bride and groom of less than two weeks, agreed to die together here today As a result of the death compact, the young bride is dead and the husband at the point of death with a bullet wound near his heart.

The shots, according to the weakly whispered story of the husband, were fired by the wife with his sanction. He said that he preferred death to separation from the woman he loved, but did not have the courage to kill her and himself Mrs Webb, however, said that she was not afraid and agreed to first kill him and then end her own life One shot she aimed at his heart and then turned the weapon against herself, making sure of her purpose by shooting herself three times. When the bodies were found Webb was lying unconscious on the bed, his wife already dead, lying beside him with her head pillowed on his arm. The revolver lay near her hand Before lying down to die the two had written, sealed and stamped three letters and had also written two open notes Webb was 26 years old, and was until recently a resident of St Joseph, Mo. His wife was 19. She was the daughter of L. H Walkup, of Fairfax, Mo.

WEDDING BELLS HASTENED BY DREAM OF YOUNG GIRL

Plans Hurried to Fulfil Wish of a Dead Sister Who Appeared to Her in Sleep.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 14 —When Miss Ida Marie Doerge of 3105 Sheridan avenue, became the bride of Julius Langenbach, the dearest wish of a sister, now dead, was fulfilled. This wish, often expressed during the last illness of Miss Cordelia Doerge, had need to be reinforced by a dream so vivid as to seem like an apparition before the date of the wedding was set.

A month ago Miss Doerge dreamed that her sister stood beside her bed. She opened her eyes with a start, and so strong had been the subconscious impression that she really thought she saw the form of her sister.

She construed the experience as an indication that her sister was not pleased that the wedding had been so long deferred, and assented to the renewed importunities of Mr. Langenbach and named the day.

Before that it had been an even break whether Miss Doerge would get married in fulfillment of the known wishes of her sister or remain single in fidelity to her memory. The sisters were very devoted to each other, and although it has been three years since Miss Cordelia died, Miss Ida has continued to grieve because of the separation

When Miss Cordelia, stricken with a lingering illness, was confined to her home for months, Mr. Langenbach, who had become a friend of both of the girls through association at the Holy Ghost Evangelical church, Grand and Page avenues, to which they all belonged, called often to see her.

Miss Cordelia greatly appreciated this thoughtful consideration, and, discerning his admiration for her sister and knowing that she could not recover, often urged Miss Ida to marry him after she was gone.

WORST FLOOD FOR YEARS

Melting Snows In Washington Cause Loss of Life and Property.

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 14 —Swamped by a succession of warm rains, the snow on the western slopes of the Cascare mountains has melted, flowed into the river at the base, thereby resulting in what looks like one of the worst floods this section of the country has seen for years.

Bridges have been washed away, telegraph and telephone wires are down, the train service on the Northern Pacific is completely disarranged, and up to the present time one life is lost. The whole country between Auburn and the Cascade mountains is reported to be in flood Every river and creek between these points has reached marks as high as that known to the memory of men who have lived there for years past.

The full extent of the danger and damage is difficult to ascertain. All wires being down, the information received is but meager. Telephone communications received at the offices of the Northern Pacific railroad in this city indicate that unless the waters subside soon all the country along the shores of the Green, White, Greenwater, Black and Stuck rivers and those through which the innumerable creeks and feeders to the large rivers flow, will be flooded, causing thousands of dollar' worth of damage.

In three hours yesterday afternoon the White river rose three feet and a telephone message last night stated that it was still rising.

Reports received here from Hot Springs and Lester state that the railroad bridges at both these points, and one at Fairfax have been carried away in the sudden onrush of the waters.

The Northern Pacific expects to get into communication with the flood in the country by noon today, but so little is known of the exact state of affairs and so serious is the outlook that it is possible that the expectation may not be realized

SUPERSTITIONS ABOUT BABIES.

It is believed by many, says an old copy of Harper's Bazar, that if a child cries at its birth and lifts up only one hand, it is born to command.

It is thought very unlucky not to weigh the baby before it is dressed. When first dressed, the clothes should not be put on over the head, but drawn on over the feet, for luck.

When first taken from the room in which it was born it must be carried upstairs before going down, so that it will rise in the world. In any case, it must be carried upstairs or up the street, not downstairs or down the street, the first time it is taken out.

It is also considered in England and Scotland unlucky to cut the baby's nails or hair before it is 12 months old.

Born on Monday, fair in the face;
Born on Tuesday, full of God's grace;
Born on Wednesday, the best to be had;
Born on Thursday, merry and glad,
Born on Friday, worthily given;
Born on Saturday, work hard for a living;
Born on Sunday, shall never know want, is known with very few changes all over the Christian world; one deviation from the original makes Friday's child "free in giving." Thursday has one very lucky hour, just before sunrise.

The child that is born on the Sabbath day
Is bonny and good and blithe and gay
While
He who is born on New Year's morn
Will have his own way as sure as you're born.
And
He who is born on an Easter morn
Shall never know care, nor want, nor harm.

WILL DEDICATE NEW LIBRARY

Mills College Preparing to Celebrate Opening of New Carnegie Building.

Preparations for the dedication on Saturday next of the handsome new Carnegie library, recently completed, are being made by the faculty and students of Mills college. An interesting program of events is to take place.

In the morning there is to be a basketball game among the girls, for which the members of the opposing teams have been practicing for weeks. The dedication ceremonies will occupy a large share of the afternoon, after which there will be a procession around the grounds, and in the evening there will be a general feasting over the success that is expected to attend the occasion

The dedication exercises will be replete with music and addresses Rev. C R Brown, pastor of the First Congregational church of this city, who is chairman of the college board of trustees, will be president of the day. The principal address will be delivered by Professor Warring Wilkinson of Berkeley.

Mrs. Mills, who has been in the east for some time, is expected to return before Saturday, and the entire affair is said to have been arranged on the date selected partially to celebrate her birthday.

DINNER OF MEN'S LEAGUE A SUCCESS

The Men's League of the First Congregational church gave a dinner last evening in the church parlors which was attended by upwards of a thousand people

After the tables were cleared a discussion on the merits of socialism was indulged in. Among the prominent speakers were Austin Lewis, the Socialist candidate for governor at the last election who took up cudgels on behalf of his party; Fairfax Wheelan, who argued for conservatism; and the Rev. C R. Brown, who advocated an intermediate course.

FAINT AND WEAK.

The Wrong Breakfast Don't Last Till Dinner.

The fact that Grape Nuts is a concentrated brain and muscle food, and supplies actual nourishment in abundance, places it in a class distinct from a host of cereal foods that simply "taste good," but have not the "body."

A Mich. lady noticed a big difference when she used Grape Nuts for breakfast. She writes:

"My little boy was so puny and illnourished we feared we would never raise him. He could not digest starchy foods at all until he ate Grape Nuts which agreed with him perfectly.

"He began to gain so much that people asked me what I had found to make the difference.

"Realizing how much good it had done him, I determined to try it myself, for I have always been troubled with indigestion and constipation, taking a pill every night for years, and tonics most of the time.

"Skeptical as I was I finally threw away the pills and began to use Grape-Nuts with eggs, three times aday, and plenty of fruit and whole wheat bread.

"I am perfectly surprised at how much it has helped me, I have gained so much strength and feel like a different person. I am never distressed after eating and am always ready for my next meal—particularly breakfast.

"Formerly, when I ate a hearty breakfast it distressed me so I rarely was ready for dinner, but I have proved the right kind of food will allow me a good breakfast and no trouble.

"For breakfast I now use Grape Nuts with cream; for dinner as a salad or pudding; supper with fruit; and with other plain food at each meal. For my boy I soak it in hot milk and add cream, and he likes it dry and teases me for it." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville." WALLA WALLA HAS NO ELECTRIC POWER

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 14.—A special to the Oregonian from Walla Walla, Wash., says owing to the recent heavy rains and a cloudburst which occurred this afternoon on Mill Creek, about fifteen miles east of this city, a repetition of the flood which did so much damage last May is threatened. The electric light plant on the Walla Walla river is flooded, the plant shut down and the city is without electrical power, and is in darkness, with the exception of the light furnished by the gas company.

THE WILD OATS OF GIRLS.

(By ELEANOR GIBSON TAIT.)

Of course it's all nonsense to say girls don't sow their wild oats, and that they don't reap them, too, with many bitter and vain regrets.

Of course it is all very delightful while it lasts, but the sowing time is soon over, and the harvest has to be reaped soon or late.

For it must be remembered that though a girl's temptations don't lie in the direction of poker or "high-balls," they are nevertheless very real in their own way.

At first she sees no reason why Tom shouldn't hold her hand, or Dick kiss her behind the door, "for fun."

And when Harry slips his arm around her waist as the picnic snapshot is being taken she thinks it the greatest joke in the world.

Her laugh is the gayest of any at the picnic, and when one of the boys suggests playing "forfeits" she thinks the idea great fun, and throws herself into the game heart and soul.

"Kiss the flowers on the carpet" is one of her forfeits, and she merrily goes the round, for, of course, it is only a game.

A little later she takes a stroll with Jack and attempts a tiny whiff from his cigarette. "I never take a dare!" she explains to Will, who comes up at that moment. Will is about to reply when they see a couple of the girls standing beside a tree. Who'd ever have thought they could come up so quietly! Then she says a great many things she does not really mean, and remarks, "Cats!" quite loudly enough for them to hear. After all, it is only the Bailey girls, and who cares what they think!

Later she goes for a saunter with Fred, and doesn't take any pains to think how late it is. When they get back the picnic things are all packed and the others are waiting for them. The other girls don't say much, but they look a great deal.

And all this while Jennie hasn't an idea that she has been sowing a crop of wild oats she will have to reap later.

The years slip past and somehow or other the other girls get engaged, but Jennie is left out.

Tom thinks her a jolly little girl; he remembers how he used to hold her hand, but he is glad to think his own special girl up in Wyoming is more "stand-offish with the fellows."

Dick still kisses her occasionally behind the door, or anywhere no one happens to be looking. He kisses every girl he can, except one, and he wouldn't dare to kiss her, though he worships the ground she walks on.

And Alec pays a sigh or two at her shrine until he sees that photograph in Harry's den, where Harry and Jennie figure in the picnic group with Harry's arm around Jennie's waist! That photograph cools Alec's ardor—he knows the sort of chap Harry is—and wouldn't have him hanging around his sisters! 'Nonsense!" says Jack, to whom Alec confides this opinion, "why, she's one of the jolliest girls out; she kissed us all around at that picnic!"

And Will? Will, too, has sighed after Jennie's vivacity and camaraderie, but he has a horror of the modern girl, and remembers the time he surprised Jennie smoking a cigarette, that time with Jack in the woods. So Will falls in love with Polly, who hasn't a tenth of Jennie's common sense, but who wears fichus, and has a trick of blushing.

Of course, Jennie meets other men, but somehow she is unpopular with the girls—"old cats" she still calls them—and things don't look very bright.

She is reaping her wild oats, but she does not realize it. She thinks she has had bad luck, and does not see her fortunes are of her own making.

For here's just the difference between a boy's wild oats and a girl's. When a boy has sown his crop he is pretty sure to find some woman who will help him reap them—help him with her sympathy and her tears, if need be, but when a girl sows her wild oats she has to reap them alone.

Cure For The Blues

ONE MEDICINE THAT HAS NEVER FAILED

Health Fully Restored and the Joy of Life Regained.

When a cheerful brave light hearted woman is suddenly plunged into that perfection of misery the BLUES it is a sad picture It is usually this way. She has been feeling "out of sorts" for some time head has ached and back also, has slept poorly been quite nervous and nearly fainted once or twice head dizzy and heart beats very fast, then that bearing down feeling, and during her periods she is exceedingly despondent Nothing pleases her Her doctor says "Cheer up you have dyspepsia, you will be all right soon"

But she doesn t get "all right" and hope vanishes then come the brooding morbid melancholy, everlasting BLUES

Don t wait until your sufferings have driven you to despair with your nerves all shattered and your courage gone, but take Lydia E Pinkham s Vegetable Compound See what it did for Mrs Rosa Adams, of 819 12th Street, Louisville Ky niece of the late General Roger Hanson, C S.A She writes:

Dear Mrs Pinkham

I cannot tell you with pen and ink what Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me I suffered with female troubles, extreme lassitude 'the blues,' nervousness and that all-gone feeling I was advised to try Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it not only cured my female derangement but it has restored me to perfect health and strength The buoyancy of my younger days has returned and I do not suffer any longer with despondency as I did before I consider Lydia E Pinkham s Vegetable Compound a boon to sick and suffering women

If you have some derangement of the female organism write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice.

OPEN WAYS FOR RAILROADS

Merchants' Exchange Discusses an Important Matter

The Merchants Exchange board of directors last evening adopted the following resolutions by a unanimous vote

Whereas we believe that Oakland is destined in no distant future to become a great manufacturing center as well as a most important point for the distribution of foreign and domestic freights and believing that her interests can be best subserved by inviting and encouraging all competing lines of railroad to enter the city upon equal terms with all other roads which may now be operated here or which may hereafter be built and recognizing further that the future welfare of the city of Oakland and its adaptability for the location of manufacturing and industrial pursuits can only be promoted by having conditions in all franchises granted to any and all industrial roads so that the manufacturer and the warehouse can ship over all competing lines of railroad without discrimination and with equal convenience

Therefore be it resolved That we earnestly request the City Council of the city of Oakland and the Board of Supervisors of the County of Alameda to zealously and carefully guard the interests of the city and county at this time and to have inserted in all franchises granted any and all railroads for industrial tracks spur tracks and side tracks leading to or from manufacturing sites or running along or adjacent to our water front such conditions as will permit the [illegible] of these tracks by any and all railroads up a just and equal terms and without discrimination granting to all competing lines of railroad the right to construct independent switches leading to or from said tracks We believe it to be absolutely and unequivocally necessary for the future prosperity of the city of Oakland and for the healthy and lasting industrial growth of its manufacturing interests to have these provisions inserted in all such railroad franchises

Resolved That a copy of this resolution certified by the president and secretary be immediately sent to the mayor of the city of Oakland to each member of the Council of the city of Oakland to each member of the Board of Supervisors of the county of Alameda and to the newspapers

Mr A Jonas of the committee on consolidation reported through Secretary Walker to the Merchants Exchange directors last night that arrangements are being made for the holding of several meetings in the districts in Brooklyn township which it is proposed to annex to the city of Oakland These meetings are to be held at Fruitvale Melrose and Elmhurst

Secretary Walker stated that sentiment in favor of annexation is growing stronger in the districts mentioned

Reports were also made as to contemplated bituminizing of San Pablo avenue of Thirteenth avenue from East Twelfth street to East Fourteenth street and of the laying of crosswalks by the Southern Pacific Company on Webster street at Tenth Eleventh Twelfth and Thirteenth street crossings and bituminizing of Webster street from Eleventh to a point between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets

Wilbur Walker stated that he had had a conversation with the chief of the Pacific Incinerating Company who professed to be anxious to correct all legitimate complaints about overcharging by scavengers for removing garbage

Hotels and restaurants are supposed to keep account of the amount of garbage removed said Mr Walker but it is not kept very carefully If the scavengers exceed the legal rate of charge and a proper complaint is made the garbage company will correct it

And continue dumping the garbage on the marsh added Director Davidson in a somewhat sarcastic tone

Theo Gier stated that since the Lilienthal suit was begun against the Spring Valley Water Co to restrain that corporation from draining the hop fields near Pleasanton the company has taken up a number of its pipes and 24 inch mains and shipped them away by railroad Gier thought that the Spring Valley people had become anxious to avoid litigation with Lilienthal

H Menge of 5?0 Eighth street C D Smith & Co of 364 Eleventh street Watson Piedmont of 90 Washington street and Cockerton & Nash of 92? San Pablo avenue were elected to membership in the Merchants Exchange

PENDLETON HAS NO LIGHT OR POWER

PORTLAND Ore Nov 14—A special to the Oregonian from Pendleton Ore says Pendleton is without electric light or power as a result of the flood in the Little Walla Walla river, which has put out of commission the power plant near Milton All the towns from here to Walla Walla are similarly affected The flood was caused by heavy rains in the mountains and the river is still rising

At Milton the water only lacks about a foot of being as high as it was during the big flood last spring the water being up around many of the houses now The farmers along the river above the town are moving out and taking to the hills

The Case of the Referee.

The referee in the new intercollegiate Rugby football game is in no better luck than his confreres in baseball and some other popular sports. Most partisans in such sports consider it their special prerogative to kick and otherwise abuse the man who has been mutually selected to oversee the game and decide all breaches of the rules under which it is played, impose the penalties of such infractions and settle final results. At that stage of the arrangement it is admitted by each party that the man chosen is free from bias and prejudice for or against either side and that his knowledge of the sport is ample to enable him to adjudicate fairly, after a fair allowance has been made for the fallibility of human judgment and the possibility of unintentional error where a doubtful act committed on the field may be more or less obscured from his vision.

When the referee steps on the field and calls the game, each side reposes confidence in the referee's integrity, skill and nonpartisanship. In ninety-nine per cent of such contests the referee is what he is assumed to be; but in a large proportion of athletic field contests, amateur or professional, the unfortunate referee comes in for a whole lot of adverse criticism, in which all kinds of unfriendly and unbecoming charges are linked together. It comes, as a matter of course, from the losing side and its adherents. It usually accuses the hapless referee of partiality and favoritism. There is a complete backing down from the original judgment as to his competency and fairness and a gross violation of the agreement entered into at the start, openly expressed or silently inferred, that each side will unprotestingly abide by his decisions. This is, to say the least, unsportsmanlike, and it is entirely discreditable to the side which is guilty of it.

An intercollegiate contest should be entirely free from any such aftermath, for college students are assumed to be gentlemen. If they are not they have no right to be retained as students in the university in which they are enrolled, and surely they have no right to a place on the team which it is presumed represents the gentlemanly quality of the student body as well as the pick of its competent players. It is, therefore, unfortunate, in more than one respect, that the losing California team in last Saturday's intercollegiate contest, which THE TRIBUNE'S loyalty to the State university would have rejoiced to see win, should be kicking against the referee's decisions, for it is fair to assume that when Trainer Christie accuses him of favoritism for Stanford and unfairness in the imposition of penalties during the progress of the game that he is voicing the opinions of his team and college.

There is no sportsmanship displayed in such procedure. The loser should take defeat in a spirit of cheerful resignation, backed by a courageous determination to be better prepared and achieve superior results at the next annual contest.

THE TRIBUNE sympathizes with the referee. At best, he held a thankless job. Few experts in the Rugby game would have accepted it, for the sport here is new and the teams competing for varsity supremacy were at best green. California had the advantage in training in having a coach and his assistant who were old Rugby footballers, whereas Stanford's coach had to learn all he knows about the game from a study of the rules and personal observation of the way it is played during a brief visit to British Columbia. To his credit it should be said that he accomplished wonders, for it is the unanimous judgment of expert Rugbyites that in the last half of Saturday's intercollegiate match the Stanford team displayed unmistakably a superior knowledge of the technique of the game.

Players in any athletic field sports and their respective partisans are not the best, nor even good judges of the merits of the play. They are swayed by partisanship. Their judgment is always leaning toward their own side of the contest. Most of them are more or less inexpert. The referee, to the contrary, is an acknowledged expert. That is one reason why he is chosen to arbitrate. It is his business for the time being to watch every movement in the game critically. He attends to business while on the field. It is a very rare exception to the rule that the referee fails to perform his duties honestly and impartially, and it makes no difference what a protesting team or partisan on-lookers may say to the contrary, the referee's judgment and decisions are ninety-nine times out of every hundred absolutely correct and impartial. And more competent referees of athletic field sports have been disgusted and driven from the athletic field by the aftermath of rank, foolish and unwarranted fault finding than from any other cause. It would have been immensely more becoming and more sportsmanlike for California's team, trainers and partisans to have accepted every decision of the referee in Saturday's contest without kick or complaint as gentlemen and devotees of a manly sport

Saturday is to be a red letter day at Mills College, when the new Carnegie Library there will be dedicated. This educational institution has attained international fame, which the dedication of the library emphasizes.

The Street Department is to be commended for its present activity in cleaning up the street gutters throughout the expanded business quarters. Some of the streets leading to the water-front through the new business district are, however, carrying such a heavy traffic and so badly out of repair that they need special attention. A few loads of macadam dumped here and there at this time, to fill chuckholes and ruts where the pavement has been worn, will materially help to keep these streets in a passable condition to heavily loaded wagons through the winter and save teamsters from much annoyance and trouble after the rainy weather sets in. Now is the time to do this kind of repairing. Clean and well conditioned streets Oakland must have to help its prosperity along.

CHIPS FROM OTHER BLOCKS.

An earthquake shock, a freshet or a tornado attracts only passing notice in the States of the South, but when a race riot is on everybody wakes up.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The oranges to be used in the East for Thanksgiving and Christmas are now going forward from Tulare county. It will require every acre in this county suitable for orange growing to supply the demand for these national holidays. There is no reason to fear an over-production of oranges that ripen in time to be shipped in the fall of the year. This fact will insure the future prosperity of Exeter, Lindsay and Porterville.—Visalia Times.

Annexation in Los Angeles.

On Monday a special election was held in Los Angeles county to decide whether a section of new territory on the southern outskirts of the city of Los Angeles, including a strip one-half mile wide and sixteen miles long, terminating on the water-front of Wilmington and San Pedro, should be annexed to the municipality. The avowed object of the project was to give Los Angeles access to the ocean and the name at least of being a seaport. The fact that the heart of the city is located twenty-two miles from the head of navigation at Wilmington and stands at an altitude of over 200 feet above sea level cut no figure in the case in the estimation of its enterprising and ambitious people. "Distance lends enchantment" to their view of most of the public enterprises they tackle. And nothing seems too big or too remote or too hazardous for them to attempt, for they have in mind a $50,000,000 bond scheme in course of development, which contemplates annexing the whole county and flooding its valleys and plains with the fructifying waters of Owens river, that is, if they pilfer the stream from the settlers of the valley it drains. People with such boundless ambitions, of course, favored the annexation of the sixteen miles of a panhandle to San Pedro harbor. The scheme received the necessary two-thirds vote and is now an accomplished fact.

The question naturally arises, What is Los Angeles going to do with its attenuated sixteen-mile extension to the sea? It is still an inland town, as much as if there had never been a panhandle annexation election. It will doubtless read very well in future to have Los Angeles described in print as a seaport to allure the verdant and the uninitiated and through the judicious exercise of a little poetic license the panhandle may be abbreviated on the county map to make the descriptive text at least plausible. It is presumed, of course, that in this case Art will not be prostituted for the base purpose of serving Deception, although some pushing and aspiring communities have been known to do such things in the past. During the annexation campaign it was made to appear that the purpose of the project was to secure control of San Pablo harbor. But there are other communities with prior riparian claims to be consulted on that point. Being a city of large ideas, it would not surprise us one bit if the next move should be to create a big bonded indebtedness to convert the narrow panhandle into a ship canal and make itself an inland port, at whose docks seagoing steamships may load and discharge cargoes. The digging out of a sixteen-mile ship canal and a dock basin at Ascot Park is doubtless a more feasible project than the construction of the Manchester ship canal, which practically converted the great inland cotton manufacturing city into a seaport and made it independent of Liverpool. Perhaps Los Angeles aims to imitate the example of Manchester in order to become independent of the harbor tolls and the monopolies which are said to have been created along the San Pedro water-front. The city's ambitions are certainly big enough to attempt almost anything for the sake of accomplishing a greater development. Oakland needs to acquire some of Los Angeles' spirit.

The New English Education Bill.

The new education bill passed by the British House of Commons eliminates most of the objectionable features which made the Balfour education act obnoxious to the nonconformists in England and Wales. It does not, however, destroy denominationalism completely, but merely modifies it so as to relieve the nonconformist conscience and placate the Church of Englanders. The House of Lords is, however, represented to be restoring to the bill the objectionable provisions of the Balfour act. This is not strange, for the ecclesiastical lords in the Upper House of Parliament are numerous and influential and they are successfully undoing the work of the Commons. The president of the education board declares the bill as tinkered by the House of Lords as impossible. Still it will doubtless be sent back to the Commons so amended, in which event it is not difficult to forecast the outcome. The lower house is sure to frame a new bill, in which there will not be a suggestion of denominationalism, but which will provide for strictly secular education in the public schools. That bill will be forced through the House of Lords despite all the opposition the bishops can bring to bear against it, for Premier Campbell-Bannerman will create enough new Liberal lords to outvote the clerics on every proposition. This is a method of controlling the House of Lords which the government possesses and which previous premiers have been compelled to put into effect to bring the lords to terms and agree to legislative reforms.

LAUGHED AT FIRST

But Changed His Mind on Investigation.

It often seems ridiculous what a simple thing can do in shaping our lives.

We do certain things because our fathers before us did, and don't stop to think that we might be better for a change.

A man tells how he changed from coffee to Postum Food Coffee and the remarkable difference it made in him.

"I have been a heavy coffee drinker for years, got very nervous and my mind seemed dazed. I would go to work every morning with an unsteady hand, and actually endanger my life, as I am a building mechanic.

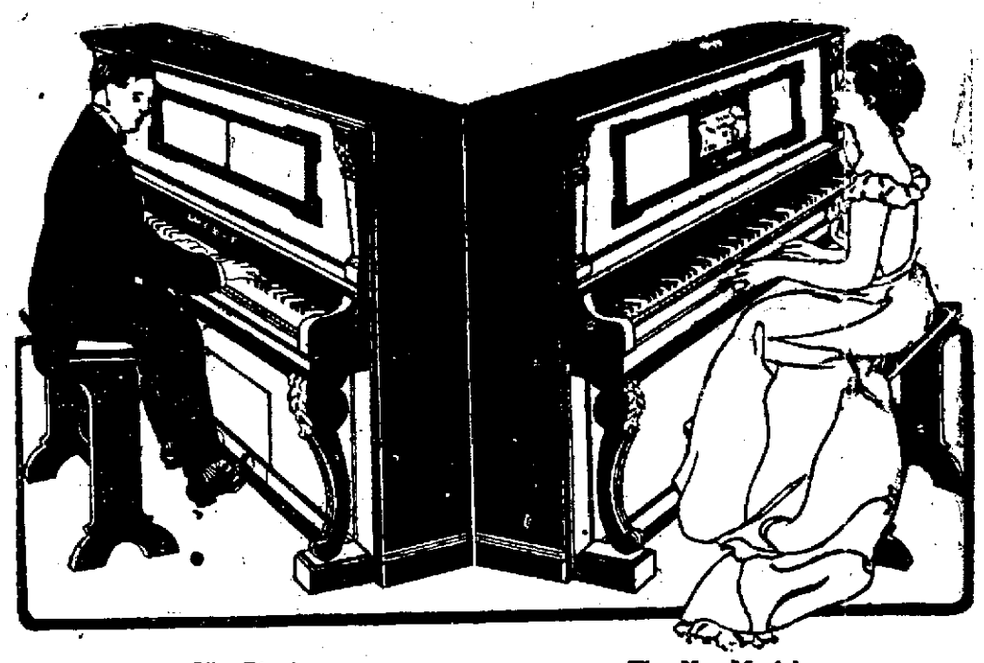

"I had read of the results that occurred by changing from coffee to Postum, but I was in such a condition mentally and physically that I never thought of it for myself. But I kept growing worse every day until I was advised to try Postum.

"I laughed at first, but finally tried it, and to my great surprise, I was dead sure I had at last found the real trouble and how to get rid of it.

"While using coffee, among all the other ills I was also troubled with sour stomach and gas, but thanks to Postum and the friend who advised me to use it, my stomach can now stand almost any kind of food. The whole change is a wonder to me." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a reason"

The Pianola Piano

Two instruments in one

The Pianist

Can play the Pianola Piano by hand exactly the same as though there were no Pianola built in it. This piano possesses the details of touch, tone and all other essentials that go to make up a high-grade piano.

The Non-Musician

Can play the Pianola Piano by means of a regular Pianola music-roll. Thus a person at once becomes master of all the music that can be rendered by the most skilled pianist—from classic to popular.

The change from one method of playing to the other is instantaneous

THE purchase of a Pianola Piano is in reality the purchase of two instruments. The complete Metrostyle Pianola—"the world's standard piano-player"—has been incorporated in a high-grade piano. Thus, to all the advantages of the best hand-played piano are added the unlimited resources of the Pianola.

One view of the Pianola Piano (as shown above on the left) presents the usual outward appearance of a regular upright piano. But lower the pedals and open the sliding panel in the front of the case, and you may play any piece in the Pianola's enormous repertory (see view on the right).

The Pianola Piano costs no more than would a piano of equal grade and the Metrostyle Pianola when bought in the form of separate instruments. This is the instrument that is revolutionizing the entire piano trade. If you count yourself as a music-lover, and are dissatisfied with the quality or quantity of music that you have at present in your home, it is almost an imperative duty to investigate the Pianola Piano—and to investigate it NOW.

Let us send you the interesting Art Book of the Pianola Piano, or, better still, call and have the instrument played and explained to you in person.

Pianos of other makes received in part payment at their fair valuation. The genuine Pianola Piano is on exhibition in but one place in San Francisco and Oakland—at the stores of Kohler & Chase—the exclusive agents.

Prices from $550 to $1000; purchasable on moderate monthly payments

'WIDOW' WINS MANY HEARTS

George Ade's Great Play Is Witnessed by Pleased Throng.

"The College Widow" has captured the hearts of more than one mere man. The entire audience that packed the Macdonough Theater and formed a representative first night gathering surrendered its affections without delay and thereafter, throughout the entire evening of enjoyment, her charms held away.

One merely has to be human to enjoy George Ade's great play, and that there is plenty of humanity left in the community was evidenced by the apparent delight of those who laughed and applauded all through the performance.

Henry W. Savage's company is up to the mark in every respect and the various performers miss no opportunities to score a hit or to raise to the possibilities of the lines. With one exception, the company is entirely different from that which appeared here last year, with a class of players fully as high, and the various parts are taken care of in a manner beyond reproach. Louise Rutter, who succeeds Miss Dorothy Tennant of last year's company, as Jane Witherspoon, the "widow," made a decidedly favorable impression upon the mass of playgoers assembled, and the magnetism of her manner and force of her art was apparent from the moment she stepped upon the stage.

"Billy Bolton," who is given the exalted privilege by the playwright of acquiring possession of the captivating widow's heart, this year is in the capable hands of Robert Kelly. One could easily imagine him an actual football player, so well did he portray the part.

Alan Brooks made a hit as "Bub" Hicks, and Wilson Deal and George S. Trimble thoroughly made good in the respective parts of Hon. Elam Hicks and Hiram Bolton, Billy's father.

The balance of the cast is an excellent one, and the opportunities for fun-making are never overlooked.

MARY AGNES PERRY

Mrs. Charles Perry, of Glens Falls, N. Y., writes: "I wish I could induce every mother who has a weak, sickly child to try that delicious cod liver oil preparation, Vinol. Our little daughter had lost flesh, was thin, pale and sickly, and nothing seemed to do her any good. Having heard of Vinol we decided to try it, and the results were marvelous. It restored her appetite and she is gaining in weight right along; the color has returned to her cheeks and she seems stronger than she has for years."

Every mother in Oakland is asked to try Vinol. It certainly does make children robust, strong and healthy. Vinol is a pure cod liver and tonic iron preparation, without a drop of oil to upset the stomach and retard its work. It is delicious to the taste and children love it.

We have never sold anything in our store equal to Vinol to create strength for old people, weak, sickly women and children. The Owl Drug Co., Oakland.

Note—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Oakland, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

NO BIDS FOR NEW SCHOOL

Contractors Fight Shy of Proposed $12,000 Building for Berkeley.

BERKELEY, Nov. 14.—Dr. Russell Tracy Crawford of the astronomical department of the University of California, was elected to fill the place of Dr. Knowles on the board of education at a regular meeting of the Directors last night. Crawford was strongly backed for the position, his name being first presented to the board by City Superintendent of Schools S D Waterman

The board learned last night that there is not a single contracting firm that wishes to build schools in this city. This state of affairs was ascertained when bids for the construction of the proposed four-room school at the corner of Sacramento and Rose streets came in When it was found that there were no proposals for the work the board decided to have the building erected by day labor It is expected that it will cost about $12,000 to erect the building

Miss M E Martin, a substitute teacher, was elected to be a regular teacher

It was decided to introduce manual training into the schools at least by the first of the new year.

A frontage of 100 feet on Haste street adjoining the McKinley school was purchased by the board for $6500

DEFENSE IS KEPT SECRET

Jury Not Yet Chosen In Murder Trial of Chester Gillette.

HERKIMER N Y, Nov 14—Expectation that the jury which is to try Chester E Gillette charged with the murder of Grace Brown at Big Moose Lake last July, would be completed yesterday, filled of realization The day was taken up by challenges, nine men in all having been excused from duty after they had taken their seats in the jury box When the session closed for the day the jury was again complete, but further challenges are expected today. The prospect, however, is that the jury will be selected and sworn by recess time today, and that the case will proceed in the afternoon

A feature of the case yesterday was the attendance of many women The community has been so aroused that women strive with men for seats in the court room.

Gillette's attorneys have not disclosed their plan of defense. Aside from the question of bias, Attorney Thomas lays no great stress on any point in questioning jurors, except that of children If the juror has a daughter about the age of Grace Brown, a challenge is forthcoming if possible and if the juror has a son about the age of Gillette, the defending counsel promptly accepts him.

BOARD OF REGENTS TO DEFER ERECTION OF NEW BUILDINGS

Bids for Structures for New Farm Considered to High---Changes in the Staff.

BERKELEY, Nov. 14—The Board of Regents of the University of California met yesterday afternoon in California Hall. The following were present. A. W. Foster, R. J. Taussig and Charles S Wheeler, who sat for the first time under their new sixteen-year appointment by Governor Pardee, Chester Rowell, Garret McEnerney, L R Mead, who as president of the Mechanics Institute of San Francisco, sat on the Board of Regents for the first time, Judge W. A. Waymire and T. J Kirk, superintendent of public instruction. Victor Henderson, secretary to the regents, was also present. Owing to sickness, Charles Slack was unable to attend. President Wheeler was also absent, having left for the east a few days ago.

The proposition of erecting farm buildings on the new university farm at Davisville, for which the regents recently appropriated the sum of $35,000, will be reconsidered by the finance committee, owing to the fact that when advertisements were made but one bid was received The only bid was over 50 per cent more than would have been asked on April 17

In view of the high prices of building materials Professor E J. Wickson, head of the agricultural college of the State University, recommended that the money proposed to be appropriated for the buildings be used in the purchase of cattle for the instruction of the students at the university farm He said that it was of more importance to have cows on the farm than buildings, although the latter were necessary in time

In the recommendations made by President Wheeler was one that the term of duty of Capt John T Nance, commandant of cadets, extended for one year instead of expiring in October, 1907, when the two years duty of the military officer would expire

Allen Knight was appointed auditor of the university The appointment was the result of the dissolving of the firm of Knight & Knight of San Francisco, which were the auditors of the university

CHARTER DAY SPEAKERS.

Another important point was the announcement of the speaker for March 23, the charter day at the University of California, Nicholas Butler Murray, president of Columbia College of New York City

The recommendations of the president of the Board of Regents, which were adopted follow

That the resignation of William Denman, B L, LL B, assistant professor of law, be accepted, to take effect July 27, 1906

That Walter Scott Braun be appointed instructor in law to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of William Denman, from July 27, 1906, without salary from the university

That the resignation of J D Davidson, assistant in physics, be accepted, to take effect November 1, 1906

That J. M. Montgomery and H. W. Edwards be appointed assistants in physics to share jointly the work and salary of Davidson, their appointment to take effect November 1, 1906, at a salary of $20.83 per month for the period closing June 30, 1907.

That L. H. Dyke be appointed assistant in betallurgy to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Norman C. Stines, at a salary of $1000 per year from October 24, 1906

That the resignation of Dr Beverly MacMonagle, lecturer on gynecology in the medical school be accepted, to take effect November 1, 1906.

That the resignation of J. M Robertson as museum assistant in the department of anthropology, presented November12, to take effect November 17, be accepted

That $25 be furnished to Professor A O. Leuschner for the month of November and possibly the month of December to provide for assistance in carrying on the the work of S Einarson, assistant in practical astronomy, who is ill with typhoid fever.

WILL BE GRANTED DEGREES.

That Miss Edna Earl Watson of the college of natural sciences and Miss Alfreda Berg, Miss Catherine Winifred Chace, Miss Cullis Caroline Fryer, Miss Ivy Johnson and Miss Etta Velida Neibel of the college of social sciences all of whom completed the work necessary for graduation before the beginning of the current academic year, be granted their degrees by the regents of the university in November of the present year.

That Charles J O'Connor, instructor in Latin, receive $150 for the first half of the year 1906-07, instead of $1000, as has been voted.

The receipt of $250 to be applied to the University of California hospital fund It represents the contribution of Mrs. Sarah L Coffin of Ross Valley, and was obtained through the efforts of Dr. Sherman of the medical department

TO PETITION LEGISLATURE.

That the resolutions of appreciation of the benefits conferred by the Farmers' Institute have been received from Lompoc, Santa Maria and Ripon. The meetings held at the two first named places requested their representatives in the Legislature to appropriate sufficient money to carry on the work of the Farmers' Institute for the ensuing year, and, if possible, increase the former appropriation so as to extend the work

That Mrs Ethel W Crocker has donated $1500 to the University of California hospital fund The donation was obtained through the solicitation of Dr. Herbert Moffitt and Mrs. Julia Peyton Johns

That Miss Alphea Chase be appointed instructor in wood carving and clay modening for the calender year 1907 at $100 per month

That the resignation of F Bergendorf, instrumentmaker at the Lick Observatory, be accepted, to take effect November 9, 1906

SCORES OF WHITE HORSES ARE LETTERED

"One hundred white horses wanted for 'In the Bishop's Carriage' Liberal pay for unblemished animals Mules not desired Apply to Col A. J Farmer at box office Macdonough theater, at 9 a m tomorrow"

The above alluring ad, which appeared in the want columns of Monday's TRIBUNE caused much excitement in the vicinity of Broadway and Fourteenth street yesterday morning About seventy-five white horses, ranging from polo ponies to big Percherons were gathered in front of the Macdonough theater

Col Fanner, who is advertising agent for Liebler & Co's famous New York success, explained to the drivers of the various animals that he desired to stencil the names of his play "In the Bishop's Carriage," on the sides of the horses and that he would pay two dollars per day for the privilege

The prospects of this easy money quickly gained the consent of the drivers to permit their equines to act as walking advertisements for the show Col Fanner, armed with a large whitewash brush and a flexible stencil, immediately started to work

Press agent Gehring acted as sheet writer and took down the names of the drivers While the decorating was being administered, a red haired girl belonging to the 'College Widow' company hove in sight She was on her way to a 10 o'clock rehearsal The spectacle of so many white horses in front of the stage entrance was too much for her highly strung temperament

She ran affrightedly up Fourteenth street and was fined two dollars by the stage manager for missing rehearsal.

It was whispered about the theater that there was trouble in store for the owners of horses for the reason that the paint was indelible and could not be removed with chemicals

The "wise guy" who dispenses tickets at the Macdonough told a friend on the quiet that the letters "In the Bishop's Carriage," wouldn't come off until the merry spring time caused the hair to shed

If such is the case there is trouble in store for Col Fanner.

All the horses engaged belong to prominent store keepers, contractors and express companies

The owners will naturally be averse to having permanent advertisements for 'In the Bishop's Carriage' on the sides of their horses

ANOTHER GREEK PLAY AT GREEK THEATER

BERKELEY, Nov 14—Once more a real Greek play is to be given in the Greek theater on the campus at Berkeley Drs I M Linforth and J. T. Allen of the University of California faculty are making arrangements for a reproduction which will be similar in stage effects to the "Birds," which was presented several seasons ago

The particular play chosen is "Eumenides," by Aeschylus, which is considered a perfect portrayal of human nature. It is the intentions of the promotors of the play that the cast shall be composed exclusively of students and the chorus of "co-eds" enrolled in the Greek courses. Dr. Linforth and Professor Allen began selecting the cast this afternoon

IS INVESTIGATING OAKLAND'S HISTORY

Edward O Dorman, one of the organizers of an association that is inaugurating "The Journal of American History," is investigating the historical work in Oakland for the purpose of securing material that may throw light on the part that this city has taken in the building of the republic

Mr Dorman says "Much of our periodical literature has degraded itself to irresponsible attacks on American institutions It is due time that those who have the interest of our national literature at heart should rise to the protection of our national honor Some of us are undertaking this work and in 'The Journal of American History,' we intend to strike a higher tone in contemporary periodical literature, inculcating the principles of civic virtue, loyalty, and love of homeland

'I have conferred with some of the oldest Oakland families regarding ancient diaries and private journals, in their possession which may throw light on the strong characters of our forefathers, and upon which may be based accurate sociologic and economic studies. Much of the true history of the nation is secreted in these time-worn journals and if they are not soon printed they will become indecipherable and lost.

"The work has the endorsement of many of the leading scholars and public men in the country. Marlette Crouse, of New Haven, Conn., and a prominent graduate of Yale University, is one of the organizers of the movement and will be actively engaged in this undertaking Francis Trevelyan Miller, who has attained eminence for the high quality of his literary work, is to be editor-in-chief of the Jorunal of American History.' Some years ago Mr Miller studied law at Washington and Lee University in Virginia, and is well-known in this part of the country, while in New England he holds a notable position as editor of 'The Connecticut Magazine,' a publication which occupies a distinctive position in American literature."

Mr Dorman states that he is much pleased with the co-operation that Oakland is giving this historical work.

CHINESE MUST STAND TRIAL

Bond Raised to $50 for Celestials Caught Visiting Gambling Houses.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 14.—To compel the many Orientals who have been arrested for visiting gambling houses in this city to stand trial, City Justice R. E. Tappan has decided that hereafter every man arrested for gambling shall deposit $50 bail. In former cases the bail has been set at $10, and the Orientals have always forfeited the money. It has gone to enriching the city treasury, but Justice Tappan has decided that the men should stand trial. If they want to forfeit their bail under the new ruling it will be a good substantial amount and if the Celestials are in fear that they will be convicted, gambling will soon be stopped by the large bail money that will be necessary to place before the persons arrested are released.

Justice Tappan made the order after the three Orientals, who were arrestd in a Lincoln avenue Chinese house on Monday night, forfeited the $10 bail they had placed. It is believed the new ruling will do much toward stopping the gambling that is going on.

GIRL IS MISSING POLICE ARE NOTIFIED

Little Florence Medros has left her home at 234 Harlan street, and her relatives have appealed to the local police to find the missing girl It is thought that Florence went away with a girl named "Viola," but where the two are is unknown. Mary Medros, sister of the missing girl, has joined in search and has notified the police of Florence's disappearance. The girl is described as being fourteen years of age, five feet six inches in height, weighing 115 pounds, and wearing a light plaid coat, a red sailor hat and a pair of patent leather shoes.

John Williams was lodged in the county jail this morning to serve a six months' sentence on the charge of battery. Williams beat up Joe Coghlan a Livermore saloonkeeper, breaking his leg.

Tricked by Dyspepsia

The Doctor Couldn't Tell Where the Trouble Lay.

"For the past seven years I have been a victim of dyspepsia and chronic constipation and have consulted the most noted specialists to be found on diseases of this character. None, however, seemed to locate the difficulty or give relief In addition to this medical treatment, I have resorted to the use of many remedies and have given them faithful trial, but all to no purpose.

Upon the recommendation of a close friend, I purchased a 50c package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and in less than five days noticed that I was receiving more benefit than from any remedy I had used before I continued to use the tablets after each meal for one month and by that time my stomach was in a healthy condition, capable of digesting anything which my increasing appetite demanded.

I have not experienced any return of my former trouble, though three months have elapsed since taking your remedy."

We wish that you could see with your own eyes the countless other bona-fide signed leters from grateful men and women all over the land who had suffered years of agony with dyspepsia, tried every known remedy and consulted eminent specialists without result, until they gave Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets a trial. Like the doctor above, they couldn't locate the seat of the trouble.

Dyspepsia is a disease which has long baffled physicians. So difficult of location is the disease that cure seems next to miraculous. There is only one way to treat dyspepsia—to supply the elements which nature has ordained to perform this function and to cause them to enter the digestive organs, supplying the fluids which they lack. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets alone fill these requirements, as is shown by the fact that 40,000 physicians in the United States and Canada unite in recommending them to their patients for stomach disorders.

We do not claim or expect Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to cure anything but disordered conditions of the stomach and other digestive organs, but this they never fail to do. They work upon the inner lining of the stomach and intestines, stimulate the gastric glands and aid in the secretion of juices necessary to digestion.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists at 50 cents a box. One box will frequently effect a perfect cure. If in doubt and wish more adequate proof, send us your name and address, and we will gladly mail you a sample package free. F. A. Stuart Co., 61 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

CLUB WOMEN RALLY IN THE CAUSE OF THE STUDENTS' HOSPITAL

MISS C. LORING.

MARY ROBEREAU LE CONTE.

Prytaneau Society Is Receving the Support of All in Its Most Worthy Project.

BERKELEY, Nov. 14.—The students' infirmary project has lately secured good friends among the townspeople. Now that the hospital has become a reality with the conversion of the Myer house into a place for the housing of the student sick, society people generally are taking an active interest in its welfare, and a number of entertainments are being planned with the object of adding to the fund. The Town and Gown club at a recent meeting voted out of the club treasury a considerable sum of money to completely furnish and equip a room in the infirmary.

Among the club members who have interested themselves in the movement originally started by the Prytanean Society are Miss Mary Le Conte, Mrs. Elton Brown, Miss C. Loring and Mrs. Douglas Keith.

REFUGEES ASK MORE TIME

Health Board to Consider Request for an Extension of Six Months.

The garbage question will be considered this evening by the board of health at its regular meeting. Health officials believe that something should be done at once to relieve the situation in this city as many residents have entered complaints about the manner in which refuse matter is being removed. The board may recommend action to the city council

The board will also take up the matter of dealing with the San Francisco refugees who are now living in tents on the city's park lands at the corner of Eighth and Fallon streets The tent dwellers have sent a communication to the board, as well as Mayor Mott, asking that they be allowed to remain in their present locations for the next six months They agree to obey all the sanitary requirements of the city.

The appeal is signed by all the refugees, one of whom is a blind man Those who have attached their signatures to the petition are: Mr. and Mrs William Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. L. Blair, L M. Stewart and mother, Mr. and Mrs H. T. Gagnow, Fred Valenzuela, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Street, Augustine Bustamente, Abe B. Aragon C. T Maguire, R Franklin, Mr and Mrs Henry Mohr, Nat Hatch, Jane Boyd and Dan Ferguson.

YACHTSMEN TO VISIT THEATER TONIGHT

ALAMEDA, Nov. 14.—The Aeolian Yacht Club is to give a theater party at Ye Liberty this evening. The party is being given for the benefit of the club house fund and the tickets have been sold in great numbers by the members. It is intended to build a club house on San Leandro bay as soon as sufficient funds have been raised.

Guaranteed Liquor Cure

We would not under any circumstances endorse a remedy for the cure of the drink habit until we had absolutely satisfied ourselves that it did all it claimed Orrine is the only cure for the drink habit that we know of, and the only one that we ever knew of, that had enough merit to be sold under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. It has stood the test of years of use and we know of many whom it has cured of the drink habit.

The guarantee given with each package thoroughly protects the buyer Orrine is in two forms: No 1 for secret use and No 2 for those who wished to be cured, $1 a box. Mail orders filled. The Orrine Co., Washington, D C, or Owl Drug Co. 13th and Broadway.

A Noted Quack

in England advertised "earthquake pills," a sure preventive of earthquakes This was in the 18th century. Strange to say, the directions were to "take before shaking" instead of the usual formula (originated in my home state of Indiana)—"shake before taking." This true story furnishes an apt illustration by contrast of the growth of intelligence. The present age will put up with a good deal of quackery and knavery, but hardly for earthquake pellets. RICHMOND MAN FATALLY HURT

Young Byron Buckles Killed in Railway Yards in Williams, Arizona.

RICHMOND, Cal., Nov. 14—Word has been received in Richmond of the death of Byron Buckles, a former young Richmondite, at Williams, Arizona, last Saturday. Buckles was in the Santa Fe railway service and while making a coupling in the yards in the Arizona town was accidentally killed Buckles, when a resident of Richmond, was employed as clerk in the office of Master Mechanic E. H. Harlow. The body of the victim of the accident was taken to Stockton, where it will be interred.

MAN IS UNABLE TO EXPLAIN ABSENCE

BERKELEY, Nov. 14.—C. A. Bride, a recent arrival in this city from Natick, Mass, who had been missing from his hotel for several days, had returned as mysteriously as he disappeared. He can give no account of his whereabouts, but says that he believes he was in Oakland and San Francisco. Bride, who is about 58 years of age, has a wife in Nebraska. Telegrams had been sent informing her of her husband's disappearance, and it is possible that she may have started to come out here to find him.

NEW PASTOR WILL BE GIVEN RECEPTION

BERKELEY, Nov. 14.—Rev. J. C. Hester, the new pastor of the West Berkeley Methodist Episcopal church, will be tendered a reception by the members of his congregation at the church parlors next Friday night. BLACK HAND SCARE AGAIN

John Christian Tells Police for Second Time That He Is In Danger.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 14.—John Christian has again applied to the local police for protection from members of the Black Hand, whom he declares mean to either end his life or kidnap his sister's children. Christian declares that the divorced husband of his sister, Mike Kuren, means to harm him in some way, and declares that Kuren is after him because he was the principal witness when his sister was divorced from Kuren.

Christian claims he has information which is positive to show him that Kuren is a member of the Black Hand, and asserts that if he is not given police protection he will fall a victim to the deadly Mafia.

Christian is residing here at the corner of Mound street and San Jose avenue. A few weeks ago he told his story to the police, but it was not given great attention. He now claims that two men are hanging about his home nightly, and that he fears to leave the house. A policeman has been detailed to watch the premises.

VICTIMS OF BOY THIEVES

Cotton Brothers Lose Hose and Boats—No Clew for the Police.

PLEASANTON, Nov. 14—Cotton Brothers, who are building the bridge at Verona, were victims of thieves Sunday night. About fifty feet of rubber hose, a pair of boots and a saw were the only things taken from among more valuable articles, so the work is supposed to have been done by boys No clue has yet been found to reveal the names of the perpetrators.

DISCUSS VANCOUVER TRIP TO CALIFORNIA

PORTLAND Nov 14 T O Callaghan secretary of the Vancouver Rugby Club which has been playing a series of games in California with Berkeley and Stanford universities stopped over in Portland a day or two prior to the Stanford California game en route to Vancouver Mr O Callaghan when asked regarding the Canadian Clubs games in the South took kindly to admission of the students to California are making in the development of the game in those districts where it is being adopted He said

Of course when we went down to the Golden State colleges it was with the idea of giving them exhibitions of the way the Rugby game should be played and not so much with the idea of beating our opponents at a game they were just learning We were brought down at the invitation of the two universities which were both anxious to learn on practical experience the meaning of many of the rules which were confusing to them

NOT THEIR BEST

We did not take down what could be termed a representative Vancouver team as many of our best men could not get away at this season on such short notice The team we had was light and inexperienced but of course we were greatly handicapped both by the nature of the ground as we played upon and by the ignorance of the rules displayed by the California players which allowed them to interfere in a manner which was dangerous to our combination plays and which would not of course be allowed for an instant if we had been playing matches which had anything at stake

We fully realized that this very thing which was militating against our chances of success in the games was the very thing which had prompted the colleges to bring us down to them previous to the big inter collegiate game between Stanford and Berkeley Consequently although we suffered in our scoring end we felt we were sowing seeds which will bring a good harvest as far as California Rugby football is concerned

THAT POSTPONEMENT

In reference to the forthcoming big game on Saturday there is just a possibility that it may be postponed At Berkeley the immense bleachers have been moved in order to make room for the new game which requires a much bigger field for play And although the contract calls for the work to be completed by the 10th the contractor says it will not be ready and indeed I hardly see myself how it can be It cost $18 000 to do the excavating and moving

Lanagan of Stanford however says the game must go on and every one at Palo Alto is of the same idea and it is hardly likely they will give in to Berkeley

STANFORD A SHADE BETTER

As to the probable result of the big game speaking as one who has rubbed shoulders with both teams I can safely say it will be a great battle with the chances slightly in favor of Stanford This team is better in the back division than the University of California but not so good in the scrum although possessing a better knowledge of the play

However Berkeley is very strong in the forwards and much heavier also and if they succeed in keeping the play closed up and do not give the Stanford men a chance to use their back division too much the chances are as much in their favor for a win as with the Cardinals

CANADIANS TO SEND HORSES HERE

TORONTO Ont Nov 14—Toronto owners will be pretty well represented in the racing at Emeryville and Ascot Park this winter The Kirkfield stable shipped twelve head on Saturday and J J Walsh of this city sent on twenty two last week from New York The Kirkfield lot went in charge of J J O'Flaherty who will race them during the winter They were Charles Elwood, Mortlake Cicely Judge Nelson Kamsack Kirkfield Belle and Lord Rossington, besides the following yearlings

Chestnut filly by Bridgewater—Dingle bay filly by Fayerdale—Southwind bay filly by Griffon—Miss Eve bay filly by Dr MacBride—Rathleen bay filly by St Dorv—The Heroine

The first three youngsters have all shown quarters as good as 23½ seconds It is expected that most of the California lot will be disposed of and only a few will be seen here again The other Kirkfield horses, about twenty will winter at Kirkfield.

Mr J J Walsh is the other Torontonian who sends a big string His horses are trained by John R Walker who was for so long with Mr Seagram Almost all of his charges are yearlings, Mr Walsh having bought nineteen youngsters at the various sales this summer Following the California season the stable will be shipped direct to Toronto to await the opening of racing at Woodbine, and three or four head that have been left in New York will join them here Johnny Walker is a very capable trainer and with all this material at his command it cannot be doubted that he will cut considerable figure in next year's Woodbine results Mr Walsh is just now in town preparing for the winter in California

Joe Gans, who declares views of the Nelson fight were greatly doctored.

The Colored Champion tells of what Nolan said to him.

GANS SAYS FIGHT PICTURES HAVE BEEN GREATLY CHANGED

PITTSBURG Nov 14—Joe Gans lightweight champion of the world who is playing at a local theater this week will leave next week for Baltimore where he will spend a week previous to going into training for his fight with Kid Hermann on New Years Day

I see that Nelson and Nolan are still blowing about Nelson's being able to beat me said Gans I have said repeatedly and I reiterate it now that Nelson can have a return fight just as soon after my battle with Hermann as he wants it provided he toes the scratch and agrees to my terms I offer to meet him provided the weight is 143 pounds and I am given 65 per cent of the receipts, win lose or draw That is just 10 per cent less than he demanded when we fought before I have a perfect right to dictate now and I will do so or we will never meet again

As to the pictures of our battle which are being exhibited about the country all I can say is that they are doctored and I can prove it I am willing to put up $1000 at any time to say that I can prove the pictures have been doctored It is true that I have a one-third interest in the pictures but I am not getting a square deal from them I complained to Nolan about this and he tried to con me by asking me what difference it made what the pictures were so long as I got my share of money out of them

M'CREDIE MAY LOSE ONE FIELDER

PORTLAND Nov 14—The drafting season for baseball players opens November 15 and perhaps Manager McCredie will find that he has not escaped so luckily when the final awards have been made by the National Baseball Commission Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Athletics did not travel to California at the windup of the Pacific Coast League season because he wanted to see a few more games of baseball this year nor did he follow the Beavers around Los Angeles and Oakland for two weeks just to be sure that Portland would get the pennant

He is credited with saying that the Beavers were the fastest minor league bunch he had ever seen together and for that reason he probably had his eye open for material for the weak places in his team It is known that Connie Mack needs an infielder and an outfielder It is also admitted that Sweeney the fastest shortstop on the coast, Jimmy McHale the center fielder, and Pitcher Henderson are fit to make at least a try in major league company

McCredie says he will have Henderson next year Of course he will The major leagues can only draft one man from him, and Connie Mack does not need a pitcher But it is very probable that he has made out his application for Sweeney or McHale before this

BARRY DRAWS WITH HUGO KELLY

KALAMAZOO Mich Nov 14—Hugo Kelly and California Dave Barry fought ten rounds to a draw before the Kalamazoo Athletic Club at the Academy of Music here last night The fight was fast and furious and the decision of Referee George Siler was well received by the spectators The fortunes of war swayed from one man to the other At times Kelly would appear to have Barry on the run and then Dave would come back and put Hugo on the defensive The end of the last round found both men on their feet and ready for more, although Kelly appeared to have the edge in the eighth and ninth rounds

Barry's left eye was cut early in the second round he claims, by Kelly butting though Siler says he did not see it Blood flowed freely and the greater part of the fight interfering with Barry's vision and effectiveness at times Siler cautioned Kelly several times The decision was popular, as although Kelly counted more blows, Barry led in aggressiveness and his blows generally were more effective

MEMSIC GIVES NEARY SLEEP POTION

LOS ANGELES, Nov 14—Jimmy Burns better known to the fighting world as George Memsic knocked out Charley Neary last night after one minute of fighting in the second round of their scheduled twenty-round fight. Memsic put Neary to the floor with a terrific right cross and the Milwaukee boy took the count of seven Immediately after he arose Memsic began to put his right over and Neary sprawled on his back for the count.

As Referee Eddie Robinson finished the count and declared Burns the winner Neary staggered to his feet to continue the fight protesting that he was not out. That he was counted out fairly is not questioned, even by Eddie Toy, his trainer and manager.

The boys weighed in at 131 pounds at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and entered the ring at about 135 pounds Both were in tiptop condition, and as they crawled throught the ropes they presented a magnificent spectacle of highly trained fighters Neary followed out his usual custom of attempting to force the fighting in the first round, but he failed to land an effective blow in the round.

Memsic displayed much cleverness and good generalship, and at all times sidestepped Neary's rushes, and generally landed his right to the head or wind.

Immediately after the fight Tommy Burns manager of Memsic, authorized the issuance of a challenge to Britt, Herman and Nelson for a twenty-round or a finish fight for a $5000 side bet.

FINE SHOW FOR THE FIGHT FANS

West Oakland Club Prepares Fine Card to Be Presented on Next Tuesday Evening.

Dick Murray and Harvey Williams, who are to meet in the main event at West Oakland club's show on Tuesday evening, the 20th, are both training hard for this go, as it is expected to make the winner the best 118-pound boy now fighting in the amateur ranks.

Murray, who is known to the Frisco sports as the "fighting rockcard," is a second Terry McGovern He believes in mixing it right from the start, and as that is what the sports like to see, it makes him a favorite wherever he fights

Harry Williams, who is to be Murray's opponent, is as good as any boy in his class and if he had been in good condition the other night it is claimed he would have knocked Emmick out easily As it was he made a great showing

Harry is a good two-handed fighter and can well be proud of having knocked out Harry Baker who is now matched to fight for the championship of the world He has fought about fifty fights and has tasted defeat but once, that being when he lost to Al Emmick.

MENSOR AND MEJIA.

Eddie Mensor the popular Oakland boy who is to try conclusions at the Reliance club with Frank Mejia who is training at the Reliance club says that when he gets his man into the ring he will punch him full of holes The clubs about the bay have had these two matched about a dozen times, but for some reason they have never been brought together, but as Matchmaker Simpson made each put up $25 forfeit this time it is practically a certainty that both of them will be ready to fight when the gong rings.

Mejia is the boy who has spoiled the aspirations of several of the good boys about the bay, and whenever he fights the sports are sure to get a run for their money

SPECIAL EVENT.

In the other special event L. Johnson the crack 135-pounder, is to meet Joe Varella the pride of North Beach. Johnson has been stowing away such big fellows lately that it will seem queer to him to be fighting a boy his own weight

Varella is a stranger to the sports in Oakland, but is well known in Frisco In the last tournament at the Olympic Club, he gave away weight to Jimmy Carroll and then went into the ring and put up such a hard fight that many of the spectators thought he should have had the decision.

OTHER BOUTS.

Kid Alameda who easily disposed of Martin at the Club's last show, will meet a tartar when he hooks up with Young Casey in the curtain raiser.

In the second go, George Leahy, who also won by the knockout route last month, is to mix it with Roy Truman, a lad who has won several fights amongst the amateurs

Eddie Lovejoy, a boy who has made several good fights in Oakland, is billed to go four rounds with Kid Josephs

In all the card seems to be as good as any ever offered the Oakland sports, and promises to draw a large crowd

PUSH BALL CONTEST, OR CLASS RUSH, AT BERKELEY

BERKELEY Nov 14—The first annual push ball contest between the sophomore and freshmen classes of the University of California will be pulled off on California Field next Saturday afternoon at 2 30 o'clock. An admission fee of ten cents will be charged to pay for the big six-foot ball which has been ordered Each class will be represented by 150 players and the legalized rush, for such is the true nature of the contest, will probably draw as many spectators as a bona fide football game

The game is to be under entire charge of a referee, who will be chosen by the rules committee The referee will appoint eight assistants to act as umpires four from each of the upper classes It will be the duty of these umpires to watch for unnecessary roughness and fouls for which offense the referee may disqualify One point is to be scored when the ball is forced across the line outside of the goal posts If the score is made between the posts two points are to be counted

The freshmen will meet this afternoon to elect a captain for the occasion, while the second year men will meet later in the week The struggle is bound to be intensely interesting and exciting

Following are the rules as framed by the committee

RULES OF THE GAME.

1 Ball The ball shall be a Spalding regulation push ball

2 Field The field of play shall be the regular Rugby field

3 Scoring If the ball be forced over the goal line and between the positions ordinarily occupied by the goal posts two points If forced across any other part of the goal line one point

4 Teams Each team shall consist of not less than 100 players nor more than 150 The teams shall have equal numbers the committee on rules to decide the number and the eligibility of the players.

5 Officials There shall be a referee eight umpires two flagmen, two timekeepers and one scorer

REFEREE.

The referee shall be appointed by the committee on rules He shall appoint the other officials and at the time of the game, shall be in supreme command of the field ball and players He shall blow his whistle when the ball goes in touch and shall mark the spot where the ball is to be placed for resuming play, twenty yards from the touch line.

The umpires shall be four from the senior class and four from the junior class Their duties shall be to assist the referee in any way that he may direct They shall watch for fouls and report the same to the referee Each umpire shall be provided with a whistle which is only to be blown in case a player is down and is in danger of being injured

The flagmen shall be chosen one from the sophomore class and one from the freshman class

LENGTH OF GAME.

6 Duration of game There shall be two twenty-minute periods of actual playing time with a rest of ten minutes between

7 No Tie In case of a tie at the end of the time specified there shall be a rest of ten minutes after which ten men from each class chosen by the respective captains shall resume play and continue until one side shall have scored The side scoring shall be the winner

8 Ball at Center of Field The ball shall be placed at the center of the field at the beginning of each half and after each score Teams change sides at the end of each half

9 Line up of Teams All players must keep on side until the referee announces the ball in play

10 Equipment No equipment that the official may consider dangerous shall be worn by any player No cleats of any sort are allowed in shoes.

FOULS.

11 Fouls Hands shall not be used on opponents No unnecessary roughness such as butting elbowing, kneeling kicking or hacking shall be permitted Any player committing a foul shall be at once removed from the field and not be permitted to return and the side of the player so removed shall be penalized ten yards In case a penalty would carry the ball beyond the goal line the penalty will be satisfied by placing the ball half way to the goal line

12 None but players and officials shall be permitted upon the field of play No substitutes are allowed No player may leave the grounds or come upon the grounds during play or intermission without the permission of the referee.

SUBSTITUTE GAME.

13 This game is intended as a substitute for all contests between sophomore and freshmen classes All members of these classes are to comport themselves as gentlemen should on the way to the field at the game itself and on the way home

Danderine produces and maintains for the scalp a state of health and activity far above the normal. Its applications are healing, cooling, and very invigorating to both the hair and scalp. It shows results from the very first application. It is so efficacious that a sample bottle will, in many cases, be sufficient to prove its rare specific virtues. NOW at all druggists, three sizes.

25c., 50c. and $1.00 per bottle.

ACTIVITY IN S. P. YARDS

New Round House and Gas Plant Are Among the Improvements.

There are scenes of general activity in the Southern Pacific yards in West Oakland. Many cars are constantly being built and repaired, giving employment to a large number of men.

Various improvements are being made, and new buildings are now in the course of construction A new round house is nearing completion and will be ready for use in the near future.

The Southern Pacific has been in need of a new round house for a long time, as the old round house is a wooden structure, and has been in use for many years. The new building is of brick, and is modern in every detail. Carpenters are now completing the roof, and the graders are filling in the ground with gravel. The pipe men are putting in the pipes, getting the building ready for occupancy.

James Murphy, the foreman plumber and H H. Carrick, who is the round house foreman, passed yesterday at Mission Bay, inspecting the new round house which has been built there for the purpose of seeing if any improvements could made in the new round house in West Oakland.

Workmen are starting the erection of a new gas plant, which will be the same size as the one now in use, but will have just double the capacity. This is another greatly needed improvement.

F V Carmen, the general foreman of the planing mill, has recently completed a water nozzle, which is to be used for fire protection, and it has proved a great success. The nozzle is placed on a swivel and can be turned in every direction.

Niles Searles Jr., who is superintendent of fire protection, is making his annual inspection of the Pacific system.

George Latham, who is the gang foreman in the back shop, and family, will leave in two or three days for Bloomington, Ill., where he will visit his friends and relatives for a few weeks.

William Money, a machinist, is on the sick list, and is being cared for at the Southern Pacific Hospital.

E. J. Cullen, who has been ill in the company's hospital at Sacramento, has recovered, and is now in Oakland. He will be at work again in a short time.

WILL DEMAND A RECOUNT

Charles W. Heyer Not Satisfied With Close Margin of His Defeat.

Attorney J E. McElroy announced this afternoon that he will insist upon a recount of the vote of the second supervisorial district, in which W S Bridge, the Republican candidate, was given a majority of 56 over Chas W Heyer, Democratic, Independent and Union Labor candidate. The canvass of the votes by the supervisors is proceeding slowly but surely, and John Mitchell, chairman of the Board, now counting, stated this afternoon that it would be completed tomorrow night. Assisting Mitchell are Supervisors H B. Rowe and J R. Talcott Apparently Heyer's will be the only contest in this county, inasmuch as no other successful or unsuccessful candidate is represented in the board room by counsel

THOUGHT CAR WAS A BRONCHO

Wyoming Ranchman, on Seeing Oakland, Alights in a Hurry; Injured.

Thirty years in the saddle made William M Mansfield, a cattle raiser and owner of the Big Y ranch in Wyoming believe that a street car was a horse, last night, and therefore when he heard some one pass him and shout "Hello, Bill!" he remembered the etiquette of the prairie and leaped to the ground, cowboy fashion, though the car was traveling at the rate of nearly forty miles an hour When he recovered consciousness he was lying on the operating table in the receiving hospital and Steward Harry Borchert was asking him his name. He received a severe abrasion on the back of the head and his arm and right hand was badly bruised.

"You see, it was like this," he said, this morning at the hospital. "I was going to Emeryville to see a friend I had just disposed of 1600 head of shearing sheep at Napa and wandered down here to see what Oakland looks like I'm a cowboy and a rancher and have 160 of the best acres in Wyoming.

"Well, I got aboard the car and I had a good load on I had to stand on the steps and when I heard some one shout 'Hello, Bill,' I immediately remembered that to pass that salutation by on the plains without dismounting from your pony meant a bullet So I dismounted, but it seems the car was going about a thousand miles an hour, and for my politeness I get the hospital Say, feel the bump on my head but don't touch my arm, and, look! they put my trigger finger out of commission. How am I going to pull a gun and shoot straight now? You can't make a bull's eye with the middle finger. But I'm game. I went to the First National Bank today and drew a draft for enough to get me back to the ranch Oakland is all right, but a street car is not a Texan pony. Say, you ought to have seen me come down cowboy fashion on the pavement with my feet together. Say, I have jumped off the swiftest broncos, but a street car, nixey!"

ROCK ISLAND EXPRESS CO.

Railway Incorporates the North American With Twenty-Five Millions.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The North American Express company, which was incorporated in Maine, with an authorized capital of $25,000,000, has been organized by Rock Island interests it is now learned, and designed to operate on the lines of the Rock Island system, as well as to carry on a general express business. The United States Express company and Wells, Fargo & Company handled most of the express business of the Rock Island and its controlled roads.

It is said that in deciding to organize their own express company, the Rock Island management has taken the ground that the handling of express matter is highly profitable, is as logically a part of the business of a railway as is the handling of freight traffic. The Gould lines and the Hill roads have their own express companies.

Always Was Sick.

When a man says he always was sick troubled with a cough that lasted all winter—what would you think if he should say—he never was sick since useing Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Such a man exists

Mr. J. C. Clark, Denver, Colorado, writes. "For years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last all winter. This cough left me in a miserable condition I tried Ballard's Horehound Syrup and have not had a sick day since. That's what it did for me." Sold by Wishart's Drug Store.

Do it Now! Don't Wait Until It's Too Late!

KEEP your body clean!

Most people are very neat and clean in their outward appearance, but how about the inside?

Are you clean inside?

And if not, how can you face the world with clean thoughts, clear intelligence, a fair, just, bright mind and get your full share of capacity for work and enjoyment?

Neglect of exercise, rich over-feeding and carelessness about stools, often leave the delicate internal mechanism in a nasty mess.

The small intestine is compelled to absorb the poison of decaying matter instead of wholesome nourishment.

The liver gets inactive; the bile doesn't "work off"; the eyes get yellow; the skin gets dead like putty and pale like dough, disfigured with boils, pimples, blackheads and liver-spots.

There's only one solution to the problem: Keep clean inside all the time. That's the answer.

If you can not diet, or keep your mechanism going by proper exercise, take Cascarets, the sweet, fragrant, harmless little vegetable tablets, that "act like exercise" on your bowels, and gently but powerfully clean out and disinfect the whole digestive canal.

A Cascaret every night before going to bed will "work while you sleep" and make you "feel fine in the morning."

If you have been neglecting yourself for some time, take a Cascaret night and morning and break up the "constipated habit" without acquiring a "cathartic habit."

Cascarets are sold by all druggists, 10c, 25c and 50c. The 10c size trial box is a neat fit for the vest pocket or lady's purse.

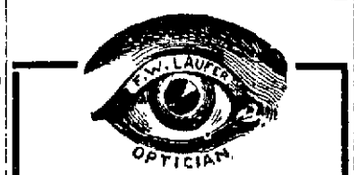

Be sure to get the genuine with the "long-tailed C" on the box and the letters "CCC" on each tablet. They are never sold in bulk. 7nh

HERE IS THE TRIBUNE'S GREAT SKIDOO PROBLEM

It's Easy; It Can Be Done, but Kan U Du It

THE SKIDOO PROBLEM.

A coin collector had an accumulation of pennies. He told his son he would make him a present of the entire lot if he would put them in boxes, the same number in each box.

There was an odd number of pennies, so that if he put an equal number in each of two boxes there would be one penny left over; in a like manner he figured on 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 and 22 boxes, but in every case if he put an equal number in each box there would be one (only one) penny left over. The son gave it up and told his father he thought it impossible to perform the feat.

His father replied: "SKIDOO —23 for you"

The son then put the entire lot of pennies in 23 boxes the same number in each box. How many pennies were there?

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

THE TRIBUNE'S great Skidoo problem offers the finest kind of opportunity for everybody, old and young, to show their skill in figuring, and to win a prize.

This skidoo problem that THE TRIBUNE has secured for its exclusive use in Oakland is the cleverest problem conceived in many years. "Skidoo" and "23" are in the air, and here they are at last put to practical use.

Carefully digest the problem, which is printed herewith, put on your thinking cap, get out your pencil and paper (unless you are unusually good in mental arithmetic) and figure out what you believe to be the correct solution and then let The Tribune hear from you.

This is no trick problem. It is a plain proposition in arithmetic. Just simple arithmetic is needed to solve it—no algebra or higher mathematics. It is purely a contest of skill.

THE PRIZES.

First Prize	$5.00
Second Prize	2.00
Third Prize	1.00
Fourth Prize	1.00
Fifth Prize	1.00

25 Skidoo Badges for the 25 next best solutions.

Prizes to be given for the BEST solutions of the problem.

You can enter the competition even if you haven't yet sent in your subscription to THE TRIBUNE — you don't have to collect any coupons—just figure out the answer and send it in—that's all.

Send as many solutions as you like, and as often as you like, to PUZZLE EDITOR OAKLAND TRIBUNE.

SEND THE PENNIES.

Puzzle Editor, Oakland TRIBUNE:

Answer to "Skidoo Problem" is as follows. Total number of pennies 6,052,606,561 or 263,156,807 pennies in each of twenty-three boxes.

Kindly make the above remittance of pennies as first prize.

W. J. MOYLAN,
356 Euclid avenue.

STANDS THE TEST.

Puzzle Editor THE TRIBUNE: Dear Sir—The many pennies Number 1,124,000,727,777,607,680,001 stands the test. All numbers up to twenty-three, when divided into it have a remainder of one. While twenty-three divides evenly.

Yours truly,
MRS. THOMPSON,
1258 11th avenue.

ANOTHER SOLUTION.

Puzzle Editor THE TRIBUNE: Dear Sir—I beg to hand you herewith my solution of the Skidoo Puzzle: Of the numbers two and twenty-two eliminate the numbers two to eleven, multiply the numbers from twelve to twenty-two inclusive, and to the last product obtained add one, i. e.: 12x13x14x15x16x17x18x19x20x21x22 add 1, equals 28,158,588,057,601 answer. The answer given is divisible by each of the numbers from two to twenty-two, inclusive, with a remainder of one in each case, and is evenly divisible by twenty-three.

Yours truly,
J. H. K. BELL,
1216 Fremont avenue.

263,156,807 BOXES.

Puzzle Editor TRIBUNE: Dear Sir—The number of pennies was 6,052,606,561. As every number from two to twenty-two, included, will divide this number and leave a remainder of one. The pennies were put into 263,156,807 boxes.

Yours truly,
ALICE M. MITCHELL,
310 San Pablo avenue.

GETS AN ODD NUMBER.

Take the least common multiple of 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22. Least common multiple is 232,792,560, add one, because with each division there was one left over—232,792,561. This is the number of pennies in one box, but there were twenty-three boxes—232,792,561x23 equals 5,354,228,903; number of pennies man had was 5,354,228,903. This is an odd number.

FRANCES W. BOUMAN,
2927 Florence street.

LARGE AS BOX CAR.

Puzzle Editor THE TRIBUNE: By the conditions of the problem we must find a number which is exactly divisible by twenty-three, and also which, minus one, will exactly contain all the other numbers from two to twenty-two, inclusive. Therefore, the least common multiple of these numbers, plus one, if divisible by twenty-three is the number sought. This, divided by twenty-three leaves a remainder of fifteen. We must, therefore, multiply it by some number which will give us a result divisible by twenty-three with a remainder of twenty-two. We find by trial that multiplying by twenty-six gives 6,052,606,560. Adding one to this we have 6,052,606,561. The number sought, which fulfills all the conditions. Each box must contain 263,156,807 pennies, and would be about as large as a box car.

ADELE W. WRIGHT,
1523 Valdez street.

DEATH REFUGE FROM LIQUOR

Man Makes Second Vain Effort to End His Life Because of Drink.

Two times in one week E. J. Murphy, a gas worker of San Francisco, but who resides with his wife at 1683 Fifty-seventh street, has attempted to end his life by taking gas. Both times he has been unsuccessful, but he declares that he will try again. Murphy is despondent over his uncontrollable craving for liquor and both attempts at suicide have followed protracted sprees.

For the past few weeks he has been drinking heavily, and last Sunday attempted to end his life by going into the bath room and turning on the gas. His wife discovered him in time, however, to foil his effort.

Yesterday he seized an opportunity to try again while his wife was over in San Francisco searching for rooms. He entered his bedroom and after carefully closing the doors and windows opened the gas jet.

At 5:30 he was found in an unconscious condition by his eldest son, who notified the police, and he was removed to the receiving hospital, where he now lies in a precarious condition.

By his side on the bed was found the following note:

"To the coroner, whoever he may be: When found I am a member of the Gas Workers' Union of San Francisco, in good standing, so you can get $100 to bury me. See delegate George H. Bell, who has my card. I have a receipt paid up to October 1st. Nothing more. Yours, E. J. Murphy."

Murphy is a native of Ireland and 57 years of age. He has a wife and four children. His wife says he has always been a good husband and father and that his only fault had been a craving for liquor.

MORRIS SCHNEIDER VISITING NEW YORK

Morris Schneider, the well-known local shoe dealer, is now in the East, with headquarters in New York City, his absence being principally for the purpose of purchasing a new stock of shoes for his elegant store in this city, located at 953 Washington street, which has recently been enlarged and renovated, which makes it the most modern and commodious shoe store in Oakland. Mr. Schneider is accompanied by Mrs. Schneider, and before returning will make his trip one of pleasure as well as business, visiting the principal places of interest east of the Rocky Mountains. Mr. and Mrs. Schneider will return to Oakland on December 3. During Mr. Schneider's absence his business here is being ably managed by Henry Gilbert, one of the best and most favorably known shoe men on the Pacific Coast, who for many years was traveling representative for one of the leading wholesale shoe houses in this section. Mr. Gilbert is a practical person in his line and he will prove a valuable acquisition to Mr. Schneider's corps of employes. Mr. Gilbert has many friends on this side of the bay who will be glad to learn of his permanent location in Oakland.

WEDDED TWICE TO ONE GIRL; SUED FOR BREACH

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Nov. 14.—Married to his second wife the second time to please her father, Robert Eastburn, a well-to-do druggist, is the defendant in a breach of promise suit for $10,000.

The aggrieved young woman is Miss Hattie Sedam, the daughter of a contractor in this city. The papers in the case have been served on the druggist.

Eastburn went on a hunting trip in Pennsylvania a year ago. He met Miss May Parsons, of Mount Union and on January 19 last it was announced that they had been married. Details of the wedding were not given out. On October 18 they were again married in Harrisburg.

Miss Sedam charges that Eastburn specifically promised to marry her. It is known that Miss Sedam made preparations for the wedding, and that the date was postponed. The case will come up in the December term of the Circuit Court. Eastburn's daughter eloped several years ago and married a man employed in the drug store owned by her father.

Fortunate Missourians.

"When I was a druggist at Livonia, Mo.," writes T. J Dwyer, now of Graysville, Mo., "three of my customers were permanently cured of consumption by Dr. King's New Discovery, and are well and strong today. One was trying to sell his property and move to Arizona, but after using New Discovery a short time he found it unnecessary to do so. I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as the most wonderful medicine in existence." Surest Cough and Cold Cure and Throat and Lung Healer. Guaranteed by Osgood Brothers, druggists. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

COURTS MUST CONSTRUE LAW

New Rate Legislation Proves Hard Puzzle for Railway Lawyers.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Learnedly as Congress discussed the new railroad rate law it used language in the statute capable of so many different interpretations that the Interstate Commerce Commission is almost swamped by the deluge of questions pouring in upon it daily.

It has become evident the commission and the courts will make government regulation of railroad rates a failure or a success and if it be the former, members of the commission fear the remedy the people probably will try will be that of government ownership of transportation facilities, which William J. Bryan advocated in his New York speech, and which was partly responsible for Democratic defeat in the late campaign.

Because government economists are firmly convinced that government ownership will retard rather than assist the progress of the country, they are impressing upon the commission the necessity of wise interpretation of various provisions of the railroad rate law. The law presents so many new phases of the transportation problem, creating practically a revolution in carriage business, that the commission feels it must go slow and be sure of its ground before rendering decisions.

The commission is giving the various questions which have arisen its most careful consideration, but there is no doubt the carriers will appeal the most important to the courts.

HIRED MAN BEATS HIS EMPLOYER AT POLLS

WINSTED, Conn., Nov. 14.—Professor M. S. Pupin Columbia University professor and inventor of the ocean telephone, was defeated for the legislature by his hired man, Matthew O'Brien, a stonemason.

Laborers voted against Professor Pupin because, they said, he brought workingmen from San Francisco to toil on his large country estate. O'Brien took a day off and worked hard to defeat his employer.

61 MILLIONS TO BE SPENT

Six Western Railways Break All Records for New Equipments.

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—The large orders for equipment which have been announced within the last few days by Western railroads indicate that all records relating to increases in equipment will be smashed this year. The Wabash expects within a few weeks to make contracts for $12,320,000 worth of new cars and engines and the Northern Pacific has just made public its purchase of $7,700,000 worth of new freight cars.

The Burlington has begun to receive $5,568,000 worth of new locomotives, the orders for which will not be filed until next year.

The Santa Fe has in orders for $8,000,000 worth of cars and locomotives. Added to the recently announced orders by the Harriman lines aggregating $21,560,000 and by the Rock Island, amounting to $6,000,000, this makes $61,138,000 in orders which six Western systems have placed, practically all of them for delivery early next year. Other roads are making purchases on a similarly large scale which they are not yet ready to announce.

KILLS HIMSELF WHEN HE LOSES ON ELECTION

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14.—Loss of a large sum of money, wagered on the election, it is believed, so preyed on the mind of Harry S. McNabb, a druggist, who lives at 1521 North Broad street, that he committed suicide by shooting himself in the head in the saloon of William B. Glenn, 410 Market street.

McNabb entered the saloon early and pored over the newspapers. Later, he was seen figuring on a small sheet of paper, as if comparing results. He then pushed the papers aside, and sat with his head buried in his hands for several minutes. John Conneen, the bartender, seeing that McNabb did not touch the breakfast which he ordered, asked him if he was ill. He simply shook his head. McNabb then arose, thrust the untouched food aside, and walked out to an alley in the rear of the saloon. A moment later a pistol shot was heard. Isaac Taddler, who was on the second floor, found McNabb lying unconscious. One hand clutched a revolver, and in the other was a small piece of paper, covered with figures. The dying man was hurried to the Pennsylvania Hospital, but succumbed on the way. McNabb was employed for several years in Charles Dodson's drug store, in the Bullit building. He was of steady habits, and gave faithful service. When he left the store Tuesday he said he was going to vote the reform ticket.

McNabb lived with his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Noblitt, in a handsome house at 1521 North Broad street. His relatives were shocked on hearing of his death. They said they did not know of his election bets, and could give no reason for the deed. McNabb was 42 years old.

THREE CHARGE THEIR PASTOR WITH SLANDER

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14.—The Rev. Alexander Gordon, pastor of Monumental Church, Fortieth and Ludlow streets, has been arrested on a warrant sworn out by one of his parishioners, Richard S. Smithers, of 3627 Haverford avenue, accusing the minister of slander and defamation of character and asking as damages $2000. Gordon was released on bail, furnished by a friend.

According to the statement of Everett J. Waring, who is acting as attorney for Smithers, Gordon is at loggerheads with several of his flock, two other charges being made by other members of the congregation, and pending trial in the courts. One of these is the case of Charles H. charged by Gordon with the theft of the church funds, and asks damages of $10,0000, and the other, the case of a woman member of the congregation, who alleges that Gordon has made assertions reflecting on her character. She wants damages of $2000.

In all, Gordon is being sued for $14,000, and all on the same charge, that of slander.

MANHATTAN MINES ARE ALL ACTIVE

OOD ORE BEING FOUND IN MANY OF THE PROPERTIES

ompanies and Leases Showing Renewed Activity and the Market Is Much Improved.

Manhattan, Nev., Nov. 14, 1906.
o the Editor of the Oakland Trib-
: General conditions and operas at the mines here are much im-ved since election. People from lying districts are returning, com-ies and leasers are showing re-ved activity and on a more extenscale. Locally the stock market also improved. The Manhattans e experienced a long "slump." Now high prices of Goldfield and Tono-securities are reacting in favor the lower-priced Manhattans, and can safely be assumed that by the t of the year conditions will have ched a more satisfactory basis with ning operations approaching some-ng like those which distinguished nhattan as a great district previous April 18, 1906.

The Broncho is now sinking below 200 and drifting on the ledge. perintendent Lye is visiting Tono-to make arrangements for a am or gasoline power hoist. From feet in the Broncho shaft good ore been opened down to the 200 el.

The Manhattan Consolidated is also feet in the present working shaft, has cut a rich body of ore. Be-water level, in double compartnt shaft, a pump has been installed extensive operations planned.

The Pine Nut Company is working large force below and on the 200 el, and has installed an excellent sting plant. The ore was opened places in the lower workings and king resumed.

On the White Caps, owned by the nhattan Dexter, leasers have opened ven feet of ore at 50 feet depth. e ore is high grade milling and prop-y adjoins the Pine Nut.

The Manhattan Consolidated Exten-
n is sinking a wing in the main nnel in ore of similar grade to the nhattan Consolidated, showing the ntinuity of the vein and pay values. The Mizpah Manhattan has several ses in good ore. At 50 feet Willis Company have opened a body of lling grade.

The Litigation Hill companies, com-sing forty claims, are still unfor-nately tied up by the courts. Mining en familiar with this ground state e ledges there will discount any-ing opened in Nevada for showings free gold ore. A decision is daily pected from District Judge Brien at nopah, who has personally visited e claims in conflict.

There are several important workgs in ore on the Seyler Humphrey, d conditions are favorable for a big ne on this ground.

The Mustang Company is drifting the 100 level and blocking ore.

The ore shoot on the Wolftone has en exposed over 300 feet on the sur-ce, and drifting at the 100 for a stance of 149 feet shows the ore con-uous this distance. Sinking is pro-essing and Superintendent Rogers ates a crosscut 35 feet will be run expose the width of the ore body. Indian Camp, Jumping Jack and ray Dog look favorable, the latter owing greater activity.

In Central camp, two miles west of Manhattan, the Hooligan, Original Manhattan, the Bob Roy and others are carrying forward extensive work.

At Superior, the new copper camp across Smoky Valley, westerly from Manhattan, there have recently been over 500 copper claims located and a townsite platted. Assays from fifty claims run from 4 per cent to 40 per per cent copper, with small gold and silver values. The ore shows carbonates, oxides and gray copper. Gossan covers an area from two to three miles square. Croppings show quartz gangue. Water is available two miles from camp and a large amount of prospecting is going forward, teams leaving daily from Manhattan for the new strike.

The Little Grey at Manhattan has recently attracted widespread attention and developments show excellent conditions and a very promising prospect.

The Reycraft Lease has been operating continuously since early this year on the Little Grey. Mr. Reycraft is one of the pioneers of Manhattan, and located this ground, sold the claims and started a lease at once, which has been a source of profit the past six months.

The Gold Crater has been granting leases on a surface showing of remarkable richness, covering many acres in area, which is proving up well.

In the Big Pine group, owned by the Mayflower Company, extensive operations are planned.

The Annie Laurie property of The Manhattan Mining Company, is having the shaft extended in the ore body encountered on the 100 level. Rich shipments have been sent out from this property.

The Portland Company is letting a contract for extension of tunnel now in 260 feet. Several ledges have been cut and the extension of the tunnel is figured to give 350 feet of backs. The ground adjoins the Yellow Horse claims.

he Yellow Horse is sinking its No. 2 shaft, following the ledge, which showed high grade. This property is controlled by H. L. Smith of the Oscar J. Smith banks, and is one of the finest here.

The Ivanhoe, owned by the Dexter, near the White Caps and Catbird properties, is extending tunnel operations and is being watched with a good deal of interest as development progresses.

Altogether the Manhattan properties show well. Several have a large amount of milling ores blocked out, and rich ore is being sacked for shipment. Sulphide ore of low grade value has also been opened in several properties, presenting a nice milling proposition, the values being free.

Plans are being carried forward to bring a large water supply to Manhattan, though three or four mines have a water supply in workings.

A custom milling plant is badly needed and an effort is being made to get united action to install a mill of large capacity.

Generally speaking, the development is very limited, though progressing satisfactorily as regards ore and values.

A large bonus has been secured for the extension of the Battle Mountain line from Austin via Manhattan to Tonopah, and the prospects for its early construction is said to be assured.

MOVEMENTS OF GOLDFIELD STOCKS CAUSE EXCITEMENT

Daisy Jumps From $1.30 to $5 Bid, While Mohawk Takes Tumble Then Rallies.

EXCHANGE SEATS COST $5000.

The prosperity of the brokers as a result of the general reawakening of public interest in mining stocks and the general advance of values in the new fields of Nevada is shown by the high price at which the local Exchange seats are now held. Two years ago the seats were held nominally at $300, though in some instances not even that sum was asked. The last man elected to membership paid $3,000 for his seat two months ago, and yesterday it was stated that the price had gone up to $5000. This is an increase of $2000 in two months and of $4700 in two years.

There were two very notable occasions of excitement yesterday at the San Francisco Stock and Exchange Board, both being fluctuations of Goldfield stocks.

Daisy quotations jumped from $1.30 to $5 bid.

Mohawk fell from $19, the closing price on Monday, to $16, but then it reacted and closed at $18.50 asked, with $18 bid.

Other stocks were naturally affected by these fluctuations, and altogether it was a very exciting day for the brokers and for their patrons and the big throng of spectators.

On Monday Daisy stock was quoted at $1.30 bid and $1.36 asked. The property is at Diamondfield, about four miles from Goldfield, but in the Goldfield district. One reason for yesterday's big jump is said to be that there is not much stock out and that it is all controlled by Frank Horton, the original owner of the ground. The ore has been supposed to be of medium grade, but as lower levels have been reached there has been a reported increase of values, with the obtaining of a large amount of shipping ore.

After yesterday's rise to $5 there was a slight reaction, and $1,060 shares sold at $4.75.

AFFECTS ADJOINING MINES.

Stock in the adjoining Diamondfield Triangle property, which sold at 8 cents thirty days ago, is now bid at 53 on account of having part of the same ore body as that uncovered at the Daisy. Other Diamondfield properties affected by the Daisy rise are the Jumbo extension, the Diamondfield Consolidated and the Great Bend. In these there has been considerable advance during the past few days.

The principal excitement of the day, on account of the enormous speculation in the stock, was the Mohawk fluctuation. Brokers assert that the drop to $16 was due to speculative manipulation in the East, but the recovery and close at $18 bid and $18.50 asked showed that the values had not been abnormally impaired.

A present feature of the market is the advance of low-priced stocks. The upward tendency is general. Public confidence is indicated by the immense amount of business being done. Every broker's office registers the story of more work than can be handled, and the transactions on the floor of the Exchange from 9:30 a. m. until 2 p. m. reach to about $1,500,000 every day.

BIG CONSOLIDATION.

Evidently there exists an impression that the four stocks, Mohawk, Red Top, Jumbo and Laguna, which are going into the $50,000,000 consolidation at a fixed ratio, have reached their limit; but it is the belief of some brokers that the new stock, as soon as issued, will sell at a premium. The par value of stock in the big consolidation is to be $10.

Two years ago Red Top was put on the market at 20 cents a share and was afterwards sold as low as 10 cents, but it is going into the consolidation at $5 a share and is sold on the board this month as high as $5.35.

Dixie, which on Saturday jumped 10 points, yesterday maintained its advance although a large amount of the stock was thrown on the market.

Send for My Market Letter.

I only returned from Goldfield one week ago, and leave for there again Saturday, November 10. There are some new combinations going through which I want to know about. There are also reports of new strikes which I want to see for myself and know what truth there is in the stories they are sending out. In my letter which goes out this week, I am going to give you some facts and will also have something to say about brokers who never visit the mines they are dealing in. You may get some good advice on this. While in Goldfield early next week, I will wire my office anything new that I discover and this information will be sent out from the office in the form of a private letter. If your name is on the list you will get one. Send your name and address. The letter will cost you nothing, and may put you in the way of making a lot of money.

WHEAT AND OTHER GRAINS.

WHEAT—Chicago was higher. Broomhall cabled from Liverpool that frost had occurred in the Argentine. Otherwise there was nothing new of importance by wire.

The San Francisco market was steady and quiet at unchanged quotations. The May option advanced 1¼c.

Freights continue unchanged at 22s 6d for Wheat and 23s 9d for Barley, usual European options. Not many charters are being drawn at present, and most of them are for Barley.

CASH WHEAT.

California Club, $1.21¼@1.23¾; California White Australian, $1.32½@1.37½; lower grades of California, $1.10@1.20; Northern Club, $1.22½@1.25; Northern Bluestem, $1.35@1.40; Northern Red, $1.22½@1.27½.

BARLEY—The cash grain continues firm, with spot stocks very light and the demand good. Futures advanced 1c yesterday. Receipts continue small.

CASH BARLEY.

Good to choice Feed, spot, $1.10@1.13¾; common to fair, $1@1.07½ per ctl; Brewing and Shipping, $1.15@1.17½ per ctl; Chevalier, $1.10@1.15 for poor to common and $1.20@1.25 for choice.

OATS—All handlers continue to quote a firm and fairly active market at the high prices. There is no particular feature at the moment. Good to choice Red, for feed, $1.35@1.50; common to fair, $1.17½@1.30; Red, for seed, $1.50@1.65; White, $1.40@1.52½; Blacks, $1.60@2.15; Gray, $1.37½@1.50 per ctl.

CORN—There is nothing new to report. The market for Western State is quiet at the decline already noted. Spot offerings meet with little attention.

California, $1.50@1.55 for small round yellow; California White, nominal; Western spot, sacked, —; Yellow, $1.35; White, $1.40; mixed, $1.30; Western, to arrive, sacked, —; mixed, $1.20; Yellow, $1.22½@1.25; White, $1.22½@1.25; White Egyptian, $1.27½; Brown Egyptian, $1.12½ per ctl.

RYE—California is higher and strong at $1.42½@1.45 per ctl. The strength is due to Northern orders, as the spot demand is insignificant.

STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The stock market opened quiet today, on light trading operations for the advance were shifted into the Hill stocks, while the earlier favorites were inclined to react on profit-taking. The volume of business showed a notably shrinking from that of the first hour. Great Northern preferred ran up 3⅜, Northern Pacific 3⅜, Louisville and Nashville, Smelting and Virginia Iron 2. Pacific Coast declined 2 and International Power 4.

Bonds were steady.

Most of the favorite stocks improved to the prices of the morning. St. Paul and the Pacifics seemed to yield most readily under the selling.

The market closed animated and buoyant, St. Paul continued to rise buoyantly an extreme 7⅜. The other Pacifics responded with more moderation, but the general list was less affected. Southern Pacific gained 2⅜, Union Pacific 2⅜, Northern Pacific 3⅜, Great Northern preferred 4½ and Anaconda 7.

RHEUMATISM
CAN NOT BE RUBBED AWAY

It is perfectly natural to rub the spot that hurts, and when the muscles, nerves, joints and bones are throbbing and twitching with the pains of Rheumatism the sufferer is apt to turn to the liniment bottle, or some other external application, in an effort to get relief from the disease, by producing counter-irritation on the flesh. Such treatment will quiet the pain temporarily, but can have no direct curative effect on the real disease because it does not reach the blood, where the cause is located. Rheumatism is more than skin deep—it is rooted and grounded in the blood and can only be reached by constitutional treatment—IT CANNOT BE RUBBED AWAY. Rheumatism is due to an excess of uric acid in the blood, brought about by the accumulation in the system of refuse matter which the natural avenues of bodily waste, the Bowels and Kidneys, have failed to carry off. This refuse matter, coming in contact with the different acids of the body, forms uric acid which is absorbed into the blood and distributed to all parts of the body, and Rheumatism gets possession of the system. The aches and pains are only symptoms, and though they may be scattered or relieved for a time by surface treatment, they will reappear at the first exposure to cold or dampness, or after an attack of indigestion or other irregularity. Rheumatism can never be permanently cured while the circulation remains saturated with irritating, pain-producing uric acid poison. The disease will shift from muscle to muscle or joint to joint, settling on the nerves, causing inflammation and swelling and such terrible pains that the nervous system is often shattered, the health undermined, and perhaps the patient becomes deformed and crippled for life. S. S. S. thoroughly cleanses the blood and renovates the circulation by neutralizing the acids and expelling all foreign matter from the system. It warms and invigorates the blood so that instead of a weak, sour stream, constantly depositing acrid and corrosive matter in the muscles, nerves, joints and bones, the body is fed and nourished by rich, health-sustaining blood which completely and permanently cures Rheumatism. S. S. S. is composed of both purifying and tonic properties—just what is needed in every case of Rheumatism. It contains no potash, alkali or other mineral ingredient, but is made entirely of purifying, healing extracts and juices of roots, herbs and barks. If you are suffering from Rheumatism do not waste valuable time trying to rub a blood disease away, but begin the use of S. S. S. and write us about your case and our physicians will give you any information or advice desired free of charge and will send our special treatise on Rheumatism.

NEWSPAPER MAN DIES FROM SHOCK

Sash Calmes Passes Away at Providence Hospital as a Result of Street Car Accident.

"Sash" Calmes, a member of the reportorial staff of the San Francisco Call Bureau in this city, and one of the best known newspaper men in this part of the State, died at an early hour this morning, in the thirty-third year of his age.

The end came in Providence hospital. It was occasioned by the shock which followed injuries sustained by Mr. Calmes while on board a High-street car of the Oakland Traction Company last Sunday night.

The deceased was on his way to carry out an assignment of Manager Jordan of the Call Bureau, to report a discourse which was to be delivered in one of the churches in East Oakland. When the car on which he was riding reached the intersection of East Fourteenth and Twenty-second avenue a collision between the car and a wagon took place, with the result that a Chinese was severely injured and Mr. Calmes sustained a fracture of one of his legs. The Chinese was taken to the receiving hospital, but Mr. Calmes, on his own insistence, was taken to the home of his brother, Dr. H. P. Calmes, the well-known dentist, in Fruitvale. He was later removed to Providence hospital.

It was evident the shock sustained was a severe one, but the patient, even up to last night, seemed to be bearing up under it bravely. A sudden change, however, took place with the result stated.

The deceased was familiarly known among his friends and workers on the press in this city and other places on the coast as "Sash," although his full name was Sarshel Addington Calmes He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Waller Calmes, both of whom have passed away. His father was a wheat farmer in Colusa, and it was there that Sarshel was born. His early education was received in his native place, and this was supplemented by an extended course at Gamble's Military Academy. After leaving the latter institution, the young man took a course in the art class of the Hopkins Art Institute and was declared one of the most promising of the students in free-hand drawing at that time in the institute.

In 1894 Mr. Calmes came to THE TRIBUNE, stating that he wished to become a reporter and eventually a writer for the press.

He proved an apt pupil and not many months elapsed before he proved by his ability and reliability that he could be safely entrusted with assignments of the most important character. As time advanced, he developed a system of long-hand reporting peculiar to himself, which enabled him to give almost verbatim speeches of public men on public themes. In this respect he was equal to associates who had the advantage of him of years in the profession.

Mr. Calmes was instinctively a newspaper man. He readily gauged the importance of a news story and, at the same time, possessed the faculty of telling it concisely and cogently and in a most readable manner.

Mr. Calmes worked at different times after leaving THE TRIBUNE on the Chronicle, the Call, the Examiner and the Los Angeles Herald, his last berth being, as already intimated, on the Call.

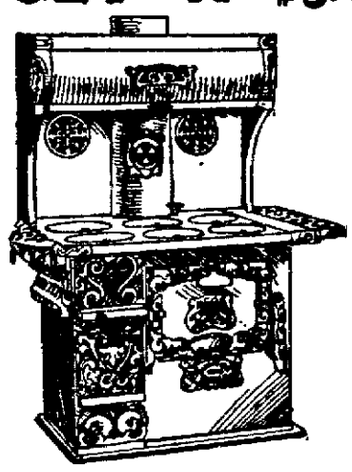

Mr. Calmes comes from a family that is indissolubly connected with the early history of California. His maternal grandfather was Stephen Cooper of Missouri, who was one of the sturdy men who was with Gen. John C. Fremont when he started on the journey across the continent in 1845, which entitled him to the sobriquet of "Pathfinder." When Cooper reached Council Bluffs, he abandoned Fremont and returned to Missouri for the purpose of bringing his family to the new El Dorado in California. It was from the Cooper train that the Donner party separated and the sufferings they endured have filled pages of history.

Cooper, however, settled in Benicia, and the first celebration of the Fourth of July ever held in that place was under his management, and one of the features of the occasion was a dinner at which he was the host. The American flag used that day, 1846, was a home-made product and in its construction the mother of the deceased and his three aunts labored.

Mr. Calmes is survived by a brother, Dr. H. P. Calmes, a niece, Miss Mildred Ahlf Gray of Fresno, and Miss Cynthia Calmes and Mrs. D. Wiley of Fresno, sisters.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from Finney's undertaking parlors.

CROCKER JOINS MACKENZIE

Deserts the Good Ship Spear on the Water-Front.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.—Johnnie Mackenzie has won the first round of his fight to retain possession of his office as a member of the State Board of Harbor Commissioners, in defiance of Governor Pardee's recent appointment of Senator J. G. Mattos of Alameda to succeed him. Judge Seawell declared yesterday that Mackenzie was the harbor commissioner de facto and continued in effect the restraining order issued to prevent the seating of Mattos as a member of the board.

Judge Seawell did not render a written opinion, but declared that Mackenzie had not given up the office, and that on the facts as shown he had some show of right to retain his position, making the question of the length of his term at least a debatable ance with Mackenzie to set at naught through quo warranto proceedings before the Supreme Court. The restraining order was accordingly ratified, pending a determination of the case by the Supreme Court and quo warranto proceedings will probably be instituted immediately by Senator Mattos through the attorney general.

CROCKER DESERTS SPEAR.

Mackenzie claims to hold his position by virtue of an appointment by Governor Pardee, on February 4, 1903, on which date the Governor sent his name to the Senate and issued his commission. Mattos contends that Governor Pardee's appointment was merely a ratification of the appointment made by Governor Gage on March 15, 1902, during a recess of the Senate, and that Mackenzie's term of four years dated from that time instead of from the date of the second commission issued by Governor Pardee.

Strangely coincident with the report that Judge Seawell had continued the injunction, the tip went out along the water front that Crocker, Pardee's second appointee, had deserted the good ship Spear and entered into an alliance, which should be determined the plans of Pardee, by leaving Spear out of further voice in the matter of appointments. Spear's term of four years will expire next March, when Mackenzie claims his term ends.

GRIEF FOR WIFE PROMPTED SUICIDE

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Dr. Harry H. Rodman, who committed suicide in Buffalo last night, lived and practiced here until a few weeks ago. His friends believe that grief for his wife, who died some time ago, prompted his suicide.

Dr. Rodman first came to notice when he became attached to the hospital ship Maine, which was sent to South Africa during the Boer war. When Dr. Rodman returned his health was poor. He went to Virginia, became worse, and sent for Miss Edith Wyman, a nurse he had met in the Presbyterian Hospital in this city.

On July 14, 1902, he was thought to be dying, and at his request he was married to his nurse. He was so ill that oxygen was administered and the ceremony was stopped several times. Dr. Rodman recovered and came back to New York with his bride.

Six months later she was taken seriously ill and went to the Presbyterian Hospital. She died there in her husband's arms.

AWAIT PAPERS IN HAU CASE

Alleged Murderer of Mother-in-Law Remanded for Week.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—Karl Hau, alias Stau, the professor of Roman law in George Washington University at Washington, D. C., who was arrested in this city November 8, charged with the murder of his mother-in-law at Baden-Baden, was further remanded for a week at the Bow-street police court, the papers in his case not having arrived from Germany.

H. Wilson, who was retained by the prisoner at the last moment, briefly examined the officer who arrested Hau, counsel's questions suggesting that the defense will be an attempt to show that the revolver found in Hau's possession was never fired and was purchased in Constantinople and not in Germany, as alleged in some quarters.

After the rmand had been ordered, Mr. Wilson said:

"Hau insists that he knows nothing about the murder and that he is quite innocent of the charge."

By the advice of his attorney Hau declined to make any further statement to the press.

The prisoner, who was stylishly dressed, assumed a confident air.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 14.—Considerable interest is manifested in certain quarters in the arrest in London of Karl Hau, on the charge of murder. The prisoner, who is well known locally, left Constantinople October 15, after a year's residence here with only occasional breaks. While in Constantinople the prisoner did not claim an American citizenship but traveled with a Turkish passport, in which he was described as the legal adviser of the Turkish legation at Washington.

He had practically no relations with the American embassy here and was largely occupied in futile attempts to obtain concessions and orders for American firms, including an order for a battleship for a ship-building company of Newport News, Va.

AIRSHIPS FOR EVERYBODY

Santos-Dumont Expects Flying Machines to be Common—All Will Own One.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—Santos-Dumont, since the successful flight of his aeroplane, "The Bird of Prey," talks enthusiastically of the early approach of the day when all mankind will be navigating the air and when flying machines will be more common than automobiles. Indeed, he thinks that the flying machine will eventually become "the poor man's automobile, be safer, faster and cheaper." In an interview last night he said:

"The machine I am experimenting with is very large, having a surface of eighty square metres, but the practical aeroplane, which will be for the air what the democratical bicycle is for the earth, will be much smaller. With ordinary flying machines, it is necessary to increase the size in order to increase the power. With the aeroplane, on the contrary, speed will be increased in direct proportion to the diminution of the resistance surface. My present aeroplane, was intentionally built large to overcome main obstacles as to principles. But with increased power, which means speed, the size can be reduced.

THE SPEED.

"At the same time increased speed adds to the safety as a powerful motor is more easily manipulated. We can, therefore, look forward to a practical aeroplane which can be comfortably housed in every home. From the standpoint of maintenance, the cost, both of petroleum and repairs, the aeroplane will be much less expensive than the automobile car. There will be no expensive tires to burst and no bad roads to jolt them to pieces. There will be no collisions. Next year people will be able to go to the seashore on their aeroplanes. It will become the fad and the commencement of a new industry."

SLIGHT DANGER.

"What of the danger?"

"The only danger would be the risk of a broken rudder and I cannot see that a rudder can break itself. The aeroplane is mobility itself. The swerving which made my descent on October 31 can easily be rectified by a second rudder to counteract any tendency in that direction. The practical difficulty, while the matter remains in the experimental stage, would of course, be how to control the supplementary rudders while the hands are otherwise engaged. My intention is to attach the yoke ropes to brium by the instinctive movement of my neck and maintain the equilthe head. Later this primitive arrangement will be replaced by an automatic mercuria apparatus. When the automobile was first introduced the man in the street treated those who had the temerity to operate them as madmen, never anticipating the day when the fashionable thoroughfares of every big city would be crowded with automobiles filled with nurses and newly-born children.

LEARN ON LAND.

"Men will drive aeroplanes as they now drive automobiles. There will be a short apprenticeship, but that can be done on terra firma. In brief, the day is not far distant when the aeroplane, as a means of locomotion, will replace in the air the bicycle on the earth."

MISS ALEXANDER DIVORCED

Here's a Pretty Mess for a Respectable American Girl To Get Into.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—Prince Amedo de Broglie, father of Prince Robert de Broglie, has filed in the Paris courts a demand for the annulment of his son's marriage to Miss Estelle Alexander, of California.

Miss Alexander was married to Prince Robert de Briglie August 14, in Chicago, and it was claimed at the time that according to the laws of France the marriage was not valid because the prince's divorce from a former wife had not been approved, and because his second marriage had not been recorded according to the French laws. Prince Robert, on the other hand, claimed that his marriage was legal under the laws of Illinois, and in Paris recently showed a letter from the French vice-consul in Chicago stating that the marriage had been recorded with his government and was legal under the French laws. The prince added that he had instructed his lawyer in Paris to bring suit against his family to compel them to recognize the marriage and also to recover interests to which he was entitled.

SALOON MAN WILL HAVE NEW TRIAL

The jury in the trial of R. Chanteloupe, a saloonkeeper, who was charged with selling liquor to Ralph Harrington, a minor, disagreed yesterday afternoon and a new trial will be held. This morning in department two of the police court the matter went over until November 17 to be set.

GOLD PIECES ARE SOUGHT BY SNEAK THIEF

A thief with a penchance for stealing five dollar gold pieces is working in this city and already has two victims, who have reported themselves to the police.

J. Ernest, of 625 Tenth street has reported that three five dollar gold pieces were taken from his trousers, as they hung in the closet of his room.

E. F. Scott of 973 Thirty-sixth street was the other victim of the thief. Six five dollar pieces were stolen from Scott's room and he has reported the theft to the police. The purloiner also got away with five dollars in silver.

Samuel Fermentz, of 1763 Seventh street has reported that his room was entered and a suit of clothes and a pair of shoes stolen.
